

A person in silhouette is walking away from the viewer on a path that winds through a vast, blue, misty landscape. The path is made of light-colored stones or sand, and the surrounding terrain is covered in low-lying vegetation. The overall atmosphere is serene and somewhat melancholic, with a strong sense of solitude and journey.

Exiles Three Short Novels:

Exiles Philip Caputo, 1999-01-02 With Exiles his first collection of shorter fiction the author of the universally acclaimed best selling memoir A Rumor of War It will make the strongest among us weep wrote John Gregory Dunne sends the reader on a tripartite adventure First to suburban Connecticut where a young blue collar man on the way to his mother's funeral falls in with an upper crust couple who lavish attention on him and pull him into unexpected dilemmas Then to Australia's Torres Strait where a charismatic but troublesome stranger washes ashore into the thick of a struggle for a tiny island's very identity Then to Vietnam vintage Caputo territory where a squad of misfits plunge deep into the jungle in search of the body of their mess sergeant who has been carried off by a tiger No matter the backdrop Philip Caputo's ear for the vernacular is unerring while his interrogation of human nature of the deceptions we inflict on ourselves and others is unflinching Exiles affirms the remarkable range the freedom from genre of a writer whose meditations on the love and hate of war were hailed by William Styron as among the most eloquent I have read in modern literature Index to Short Stories Ina Ten Eyck Firkins, 1923 Between Exile and Return Anne Golomb Hoffman, 2012-02-01 This innovative study of the modern Hebrew writer S Y Agnon offers new insight into his literary transformations of Jewish themes and sources With particular attention to Kafka Hoffman situates Agnon in the context of twentieth century literature and examines such central issues in Agnon's art as the relationship of the literary text to traditions of sacred writings the place of the book in culture and the relationship of writing to the body Agnon's writing moves between exile and return enacting dramas of presence and absence and attachment and loss From the images of sacred texts found in some of his short fiction to the ideological conflicts that inform his larger novels this book traces the geographical cultural sweep of Agnon's writing as it moves through Eastern and Western Europe positioning the Diaspora in relation to a Jerusalem that is both mundane and spiritual Hoffman examines the ways in which Agnon's writing produces an autobiographical myth that joins the figure of the writer to the life history of the larger community of Israel Moving from stories of writer and writing to the broader cultural canvas of several major novels the author concludes with an analysis of the ways in which the fiction prompts interrogation of major cultural constructions concerning gender the formative passage of the subject through the Oedipus complex and the dissociation of culture from the body Exiles Philip Caputo, 2009-09-30 In this startling new work of fiction the acclaimed author of A Rumor of War creates three powerful dramas of dislocation following his characters places they have no business being and into situations that are vastly and dangerously beyond their depth In the Connecticut suburbs a motherless young man suddenly becomes the beneficiary of a wealthy older couple whose generosity has unsuspected motives and a sinister price On an island in Australia's Torres Strait an enigmatic castaway throws kinks into the local culture and sexual politics And in the jungles of Vietnam four American soldiers undertake a mystical search for a man eating tiger Filled with atmospheric tension crackling with psychological observation and evoking masters from Joseph Conrad to Robert Stone Exiles is a riveting literary experience Literature and Exile David Bevan,1990 Small Stories Research Alex Georgakopoulou,Korina Giaxoglou,Sylvie Patron,2023-07-31 This collection showcases the diversity and disciplinary breadth of small stories research highlighting the growing critical mass of scholarship on small stories and its reach beyond discourse and sociolinguistic perspectives The volume both takes stock of and seeks to advance the development of small stories research by Alexandra Georgakopoulou and Michael Bamberg as a counterpoint to conventional models in narrative studies one which has accounted for atypical yet salient activities in everyday life such as fragmentation and open endedness anchoring onto the present and co constructive dimensions in stories and identities With data from different languages and contexts emphasis is placed on the analytical aspects of the paradigm toward producing models for the analysis of structures textual and interactional choices and genres of small stories Chapters on the role and commodification of small stories in digital environments reflect on the paradigm s recent extension to the analysis of social media communication This book will appeal to scholars interested in narrative inquiry and narrative analysis in such fields as sociolinguistics literary studies communication studies and biographical studies Orientalism Versus Occidentalism Laetitia Nanquette,2017-02-28 This book highlights the role of cultural representations and perceptions such as when Iran is represented in the French media as a rogue state obsessed with its nuclear programme and when France is portrayed in the Iranian media as a decadent and imperialist country Here Laetitia Nanquette examines the functions processes and mechanisms of stereotyping and imagining the other that have pervaded the literary traditions of France and Iran when writing about each other She furthermore analyzes Franco Iranian relations by exploring the literary traditions of this relationship the ways in which these have affected individual authors and how they reflect socio political realities With themes that feed into popular debates about the nature of Orientalism and Occidentalism and how the two interact this book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those working on the cultures of the Middle East Russian Short Stories Harry Christian Schweikert,1919 Cassette Books Library of Congress. in depth analysis places Nabokov s short fiction in the main line of his bilingual and bicultural writing career Through references to all of Nabokov s stories as well as to many novels and discursive writings from the early emigre works of the 1920s to the late American works of the 1970s Shroyer delineates the principal historical and cultural contexts that shaped Nabokov s development Most importantly he reveals the metaphysical ethical and aesthetic concerns that shaped one of the most significant bodies of modern fiction
