Existential Metaphysics:

Existential Metaphysics Alvin Thalheimer, 1960 The Existentialist Prolegomena Frederick Sontag, 1969 The Good in Existential Metaphysics Elizabeth G. Salmon, 1953 Chaucerian Realism Robert Myles, 1994 Myles challenges the convention of the medieval mind and perceives new semantic sophistication in Chaucer's language NB DSB BLURB ON CERTAIN OCCASIONS What is the difference between saying something and meaning it and saying something and not meaning it A modern question A Chaucerian question Through his analysis of intentionality and the metaphysics of speech Robert Myles shows why Chaucer's appreciation of the functioning of language and thought could be modern Through his analysis of Chaucer's works particularly the Friar's Tale Myles demonstrates that Chaucer's understanding of these is modern and the myth of the medieval mind as other than our own is exploded The medieval belief in intentionality the object directedness of all beings allowed appreciation of a fact thought and language are intentional On a practical level Chaucer deliberately exploits three level semantics signs are simultaneously mind directed and world directed to create realistic fiction in the modern literary sense of the term Myles also argues that Chaucer is a realist in the philosophical sense a view which goes counter to the current of much recent criticism This book will not only be a challenging addition to medieval and Chaucerian studies but has interesting implications for the historical study of intentionality semiotics and epistemology DR ROBERT MYLES is senior lecturer at the English and French Language Centre McGill University and a research fellow at the Department of English McGill University Montreal Canada A Philosophical Enquiry into the Nature of Suhrawardī's Illuminationism Tianyi ZHANG, 2022-12-28 Tianyi Zhang offers in this study an innovative philosophical reconstruction of Shih b al D n al Suhraward s d 1191 Illuminationism Commonly portrayed as either a theosophist or an Avicennian in disguise Suhraward appears here as an original and hardheaded philosopher who adopts mysticism as a tool for philosophical investigation Zhang makes use of Plato's cave allegory to explain Suhraward's Illuminationist project Focusing on three areas the theory of presential knowledge the ontological discussion of mental considerations and Light Metaphysics Zhang convincingly reveals the Nominalist and Existential nature of Illuminationism and thereby proposes a new way of understanding how Suhraward's central philosophical ideas cohere C.G. Jung and Nikolai Berdyaev: Individuation and the Person Georg Nicolaus, 2010-09-13 This book explores C G Jung's psychology through the perspective of the existential philosopher Nikolai Berdyaev drawing striking parallels between Jung's theory of individuation and Berdyaev's understanding of the person Placing Jung and Berdyaev firmly within the context of secular humanism Nicolaus draws on their personal experiences of individuation to show how both writers seek to enable a renewal of our self understanding as persons in a post religious society Topics of discussion include the foundations of Berdyaev's personalism Jung's psychological interpretation of the Christian God image individuation and the ethics of creativity C G Jung and Nikolai Berdyaev Individuation and the Person offers a fresh perspective on the ethical implications of Jung's theory and serves also as an introduction to Berdyaev's thought. As such, this book will appeal to analytical psychologists, scholars engaged with Jungian thought, and all those interested in the interface between spirituality and depth psychology. Crossroads in Philosophy: Existentialism, Naturalism, Theistic Realism James Collins, 1969

The Philosophical Library Existentialism Collection Martin Buber, Martin Heidegger, Jean-Paul Sartre, 2018-02-13 Explore the work of three great existential philosophers together in this collection. Hasidism: Zionist philosopher Martin Buber shares the results of forty years of study and introduces the philosophies of Hasidism to a Western audience. In this modern masterpiece, Buber interprets the ideas and motives that underlie the great Jewish religious movement of Hasidism and its creator, Baal Shem. Essays in Metaphysics German philosopher Martin Heidegger presents two lectures in which he explores the nature of identity in the history of metaphysics. He offers illuminating insights on vital issues like technology, religion, language, history, and more. The Emotions French philosopher Jean-Paul Sartre attempts to understand the role emotions play in the human psyche. Sartre analyzes fear, lust, anguish, and melancholy while asserting that human beings begin to develop emotional capabilities from a very early age, which helps them identify and understand the emotions' names and qualities later in life. Franciscan Institute Publications, 1946

Essays in Thomism Robert Brennan, 2014-07-10 Kierkegaard's Existential Ethics George J. Stack, 1977

Critical Existentialism Nicola Abbagnano, 1969 The author is concerned with steering existentialism in a positive direction, making it at once more rigorous as to method and more genuinely relevant to the human situation. In arguing that possibility is the fundamental mode and sense of human reality, he challenges the positions of other existentialists who, though they employ the concept of the possible as the basic tool of philosophical analysis, do so incoherently. By a careful and consistent use of this concept, he clarifies its relations with those of inquiry, commitment, time, freedom, and death.

International Philosophical Quarterly, 1961 Existence, Knowing, and Philosophical Systems David L. Harbert, 1982-11-08 Proposes an original existential phenomenological theory of knowledge, philosophical systems, and theory of the world. The theory is developed through a critical analysis of the epistemology and metaphysics of C. I. Lewis and is built around the idea of interpersonal understanding and poetic language. The author also attempts to clarify the logic and theory of transcendental argument, which underlies all personal involvement and reflection, and thus all existential phenomenology. Good supplementary reading for courses in existentialism, phenomenology, and metaphysics. Philosophical Studies, 1958

The Thomist, 1970 A speculative quarterly review

The End of Existence Garvin Rampersad, 2019-07-09 First published in 1998, this volume aims to counter the paradoxes of causality and induction as presented by empirical scepticism. Though the work is not a dry critique of others' efforts in this area, in order to address these issues, the author presents his instinctive belief in the interconnectedness of the world's elements from a conceptual point of view. The work is not epistemological but metaphysical and logical, and the assumptions are made in these areas. The principal concept is membership, which appears in logic, language, and metaphysics. Truth, existence, and reference are shown to be forms of membership and as such invalid concepts The famous paradoxes stretch from that of the liar to Russell's result from this misconception which is responsible for the paradoxes of causality and induction Metaphysical Dualism, Subjective Idealism, and Existential Loneliness Ben Lazare Mijuskovic, Taylor & Francis Group, 2021-11-19 Since the ages of the Old Testament the Homeric myths the tragedies of Sophocles and the ensuing theological speculations of the Christian millennium the theme of loneliness has dominated and haunted the Western world In this wide ranging book philosopher Ben Lazare Mijuskovic returns us to our rich philosophical past on the nature of consciousness lived experience and the pining for a meaningful existence that contemporary social science has displaced in its tendency toward material reduction Engaging key metaphysical discussions on causality space time subjectivity the mind body problem personal identity freedom religion and transcendence in ancient scholastic modern and contemporary philosophy he highlights the phenomenology of loneliness that lies at the very core of being human In challenging psychoanalytic and neuroscientific paradigms Mijuskovic argues that isolative existence and self consciousness is not so much of a problem of unconscious conflict or the need for psychopharmacology as it is the loss of a sense of personal intimacy The issue of the criteria of personal identity in relation to loneliness has long engaged and consumed the interest of theologians ethicists philosophers novelists and psychologists This book will be of great interests to academics and students of the humanities and all those with an interest in the philosophy of loneliness Archives of Philosophy, Psychology and Scientific Methods, 1906 The American Thomistic Revival in the Philosophical Papers of R.J. Henle, S.J. Robert John Henle, 1999 Though Fr Henle describes his book as simply a collection of his past philosophical publications that he deemed of some importance and some value to which he has added some updating editorial comments Dr Ralph McInerney of Notre Dame in his Foreword places Fr Henle and his works such as these essays high in the Catholic thomistic revival that followed Leo XIII's encyclical Aeterni Patris in 1879 For those who have known Fr Henle and his work over the years this book is valuable and convenient record and reminder for those for whom this is an introduction it provides new insight into a seminal mind
