The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence Janet M. Bennett, 2015-03-23 In 1980 SAGE published Geert Hofstede's Culture's Consequences. It opens with a quote from Blaise Pascal: "There are truths on this side of the Pyrenees that are falsehoods on the other." The book became a classic, one of the most cited sources in the Social Science Citation Index, and subsequently appeared in a second edition in 2001. This new SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence picks up on themes explored in that book. Cultural competence refers to the set of attitudes, practices, and policies that enables a person or agency to work well with people from differing cultural groups. Other related terms include cultural sensitivity, transcultural skills, diversity competence, and multicultural expertise. What defines a culture? What barriers might block successful communication between individuals or agencies of differing cultures? How can those barriers be understood and navigated to enhance intercultural communication and understanding? These questions and more are explained within the pages of this new reference work.

Key Features: 300 to 350 entries organized in A to Z fashion in two volumes. Signed entries that conclude with Cross References and Suggestions for Further Readings. Thematic Reader's Guide in the front matter grouping related entries by broad topic areas. Chronology that provides a historical perspective of the development of cultural competence as a discrete field of study. Resources appendix and a comprehensive Index. The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence is an authoritative and rigorous source on intercultural competence and related issues, making it a must-have reference for all academic libraries.

Communicating in the Third Space Karin Ikas, Gerhard Wagner, 2008-10-05 Communicating in the Third Space aims to clarify Homi K. Bhabha's theory of the third space of enunciation by reconstructing its philosophical, sociological, geographical, and political meaning with attention to the special advantages and ambiguities that arise as it is applied in practical as well as theoretical contexts. The idea of third space conceives the encounter of two distinct and unequal social groups as taking place in a special third space of enunciation where culture is disseminated and displaced from the interacting groups, making way for the invention of a hybrid identity whereby these two groups conceive themselves to partake in a common identity relating to shared space and common dialogue. The essays collected in Communicating in the Third Space, including a preface by Bhabha himself, brilliantly introduce readers to this exciting topic in Cultural and Post Colonial theory and offers insightful elaboration and critique of the meaning and relevance of life in the third space. With a preface by Homi K. Bhabha.
