

Learning About the Environment

First Nations Australians use everything they see from the environment in their. Plants and animals can be used for food, medicine, clothing, tools and shelter.

My family thinks about how we use plants and what they can give (wood, plants) to their special plants.

Sharing and Teaching

Using First Nations Australian language gives us control and shows different understandings about their Country and Place.

Our family knows how to find water in the rocks of their Country from. This is helpful if there isn't a lot of water around.

What is the name of your local First Nations Australian language group?
