Guises Of Modesty:

Humor and Irony in Nineteenth-century German Women's Writing Helen Chambers, 2007 Brings to light unsuspectedly rich sources of humor in the works of prominent nineteenth century women writers Nineteenth century German literature is seldom seen as rich in humor and irony and women's writing from that period is perhaps even less likely to be seen as possessing those qualities Yet since comedy is bound to societal norms and humor and irony are recognized weapons of the weak against authority what this innovative study reveals should not be surprising women writers found much to laugh at in a bourgeois age when social constraints particularly on women were tight Helen Chambers analyzes prose fiction by leading female writers of the day who prominently employ humor and irony Arguing that humor and irony involve cognitive and rational processes she highlights the inadequacy of binary theories of gender that classify the female as emotional and the male as rational Chambers focuses on nine women writers Annette von Droste Hülshoff Ida Hahn-Hahn Ottilie Wildermuth Helene Bielefeld Marie von Ebner-Eschenbach Ada Christen Clara Viebig Isolde Kurz and Ricarda Huch She uncovers a rich seam of unsuspected or forgotten variety identifies fresh avenues of approach and suggests a range of works that merit a place on university reading lists and attention in scholarly studies Helen Chambers is Professor of German at the University of St Andrews Scotland UK

Gender and Politics in Austrian Fiction Ritchie Robertson, Edward Timms, 1996 This volume of essays on Austrian fiction compiled at a time when Austria is forming stronger links within the European Union illustrates a transition from traditional preoccupations with character differences between Austrian and German literature to wider concerns of politics and gender Fictional treatments of such issues as male homosexuality problems in feminism the representation of women in male authored texts and anti war protest are examined both in well known novels and in little known works by underrated authors Many of the authors discussed have received insufficient recognition because they do not fall within a familiar canon of German literature The specialised research involved in compiling this material is accessible through a series of book reviews included at the end of the volume which range in subject area from the life of an eighteenth century soldier in the Habsburg service to the continuing discussion on Austrian identity

The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 4, Nineteenth-Century Poetry 1800-1910 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994 This is the first complete narrative history of nineteenth century American poetry Barbara Packer explores the neoclassical and satiric forms mastered by the early Federalist poets the creative reaches of once celebrated and still compelling poets like Longfellow and Whittier the distinctive lyric forms developed by Emerson and the Transcendentalists Shira Wolosky provides a new perspective on the achievement of female poets of the period as well as a close appreciation of African American poets including the collective folk authors of the Negro spirituals She also illuminates the major works of the period from Poe through Melville and Crane to Whitman and Dickinson The authors of this volume discuss this extraordinary literary achievement both in formal terms and in its sustained engagement with changing social
