Pacific Dream? The Evolution of US Strategic Culture and Alliances in the Indo-Pacific Alin

Barbantán, 2024-08-12 This book analyses America's alliances and strategic culture in the Indo Pacific from the Presidency of George W Bush to Joe Biden It advances the notion of the Pacific Dream an American vision for Indo Pacific integration Its historical chapter covers the period from 1951 to 2001 presenting the reader with the evolution of Washington's most successful Indo Pacific alliance network the San Francisco System The chapters that follow analyse every presidency from 2001 onward focusing on defining the Pacific Dream and arguing that the San Francisco System is becoming outdated and slowly replaced by formats like the Quad Quad Plus or AUKUS There is particular attention given to the growing importance American allies have in Washington's Pacific Dream and strategic culture A case is made that American strategic culture is blending with concepts from allied strategic cultures such as Japan Australia or South Korea

Hillary Rising James D. Boys, 2016-01-26 On 12 April 2015

Hillary Clinton formally announced her intention to run for President in 2016 casting herself as the champion of everyday Americans With near universal name recognition and the promise to make history as the first female occupant of the Oval Office all seems set for Hillary to secure the one role that has eluded her to date but what drives this most intriguing and polarising of political figures Will she be able to shake off her past mistakes and finally secure the Democratic Party's nomination What are her chances of winning the White House And perhaps more importantly what kind of President would she make Drawing on original interviews with close associates of both Bill and Hillary as well as a wealth of recently declassified materials from the Clinton archive James D Boys offers a clear sighted non partisan analysis of Hillary's rise to the pinnacle of American power revealing the political ideology and core principles that have remained a constant throughout

Financing National Defense L. R. Jones, Philip J. Candreva, Marc R. DeVore, 2011-11-16 This book examines the complexities of U S defense financing including planning resource allocation and budget processes It covers the recruitment and retention of personnel acquisition of weapons systems and the impact of defense decisions It also compares U S defense policy and budgeting with other nations analyzing global effects

Startup Capitalism Robyn Klingler-Vidra, Ramon Pacheco Pardo, 2025-04-15 In Startup Capitalism Robyn Klingler Vidra and Ramon Pacheco Pardo explore the place of startups in contemporary East Asian economies The last few decades have seen East Asian governments provide increasing support for startups new high growth technologically oriented firms Yet as the authors observe such initiatives do not necessarily benefit the growth of startups as challengers to large established firms Rather they often enable startups to function as boosters for the competitiveness of these firms Startups in short are both disruptors to and resources for big businesses Klingler Vidra and Pacheco Pardo demonstrate this dual role by examining the evolution of startup centric policies in Japan South Korea Taiwan and China They show that in the region what they call startup capitalism an economic and political system in which startups contribute to employment innovation and growth can take multiple forms Rich with empirical detail Startup Capitalism reveals how and why startups can end up working with or even for large firms to drive a country s technological capabilities

Who does UK national strategy? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Public Administration Select Committee, 2010-10-18 A lack of strategic thinking at the heart of Government threatens the UK s national interests the Public Administration Committee warns The MPs note Whitehall s tendency to muddle through and point to the UK s military engagements in Iraq and Afghanistan as examples where there has been a lack of overarching strategy The report says clear strategic leadership is indispensable to advance British interests in an increasingly fast changing world But it raises serious concerns about Whitehall s capacity to support the Foreign Secretary s aspiration to extend the UK s global reach and influence with the necessary strategic analysis and assessment This applies particularly to the Government s Strategic Defence and Security Review and the MPs question how far this can actually be strategic The Committee calls for ministers to invest more time and energy into strategic leadership the creation of a community of strategic thinkers across Whitehall to provide ministers with the capacity for strategic analysis and assessment the National Security Council s remit to encompass national strategy greater emphasis to be placed on strategic studies and training both within Whitehall and in academia Parliament s Joint Committee on National Security Strategy to extend its remit to include national strategy a small central budget to be established to fund central coordination of departmental contributions to national strategy
