Globalization's Contradictions Dennis Conway,Nik Heynen,2006-11-22 Since the 1980s globalization and neoliberalism have brought about a comprehensive restructuring of everyone s lives People are being disciplined by neoliberal economic agendas transformed by communication and information technology changes global commodity chains and networks and in the Global South in particular destroyed livelihoods debilitating impoverishment disease pandemics among other disastrous disruptions are also globalization s legacy This collection of geographical treatments of such a complex set of processes unearths the contradictions in the impacts of globalization on peoples lives Globalizations Contradictions firstly introduces globalization in all its intricacy and contrariness followed on by substantive coverage of globalization's dimensions Other areas that are covered in depth are globalization's macro economic faces globalization's unruly spaces globalization's geo political faces ecological globalization globalization's cultural challenges globalization from below fair globalization Globalizations Contradictions is a critical examination of the continuing role of international and supra national institutions and their involvement in the political economic management and determination of global restructuring Deliberately this collection raises questions even as it offers geographical insights and thoughtful assessments of globalization's multifaceted faces and spaces

The Arms Race in Asia Andrew T.H. Tan, 2013-12-13 This book is the first systematic examination of the emerging arms race in Asia The global trade in arms is to a large degree underpinned by the strong demand for arms in Asia and the Middle East the two largest arms export markets in the world Of these two regions Asia has become particularly significant led by the emergence of China and India as major powers It is therefore not surprising that the rapid military modernisation in Asia accompanied by significant increases in the size and sophistication of armed forces has generated attention as to its trends key characteristics causes and implications This phenomenon which has become evident since the end of the Cold War has also been widely described as an Asian arms race This book evaluates the key conceptual ideas which can shed light on this phenomenon as well as examining the complex mix of internal external and technological factors that have led to its emergence The volume explores the way in which the arms race is leading ultimately to three distinctive blocs in the emerging geostrategic landscape a loose bloc of US allies in the region a counter bloc of potential US adversaries and a neutral bloc of states with industrial age armed forces whose allegiances will vary according to circumstances and geostrategic developments The Arms Race in Asia concludes that if the emerging arms race is left unchecked it is likely that Asia will increasingly become a region of instability marked by conflicts and interstate wars The book will be of great interest to students of Asian politics strategic studies defence studies security studies and IR in general

The Comparative Politics of Transnational Climate Governance Liliana B. Andonova, Thomas N. Hale, Charles B. Roger, 2019-12-18 Following the 2015 Paris climate agreement the global politics of climate change depends more than ever on national climate policies and the actions of cities businesses and other non state actors as well as the transnational governance networks that link them The Comparative Politics of Transnational Climate Governance sheds new light on these critical trends by exploring how domestic political economic and social forces systematically shape patterns of non state actor participation in transnational climate initiatives The book develops a common conceptual framework and uses a unique data set to explore the interplay between transnational and domestic politics and how these interactions shape the incentives and modalities of participation in transnational governance The contributing chapters explore the role of cities non governmental organizations companies carbon markets and regulations as well as broader questions of effectiveness and global governance Bringing together some of the foremost experts in the field of global governance and environmental politics this book significantly advances our understanding of transnational governance and provides new insights for policymakers seeking to address the problem of climate change This book was originally published as a special issue of International Interactions

Security and Defence Cooperation in the EU Christian Deubner, 2018 Against the backdrop of past and present challenges the author of this book probes the comparative utility of the EU Member States principal cooperation options in security and defence in terms of their scope institutions and procedures and the EU Member States choices in this respect over the past two decades EU Member States have not demonstrated a preference for cooperation in that policy area so far and are not likely to do so in the near future either There is no specific common purpose that would justify a significant effort to strengthen future EU cooperation on its Common Security and Defence Policy in 2017 NATO ad hoc coalition forming and UN peacekeeping appear and will appear more useful and important for EU Member States in the medium term In recent years observers have been struck by how much internal security threats radical Islamist terror attacks and the Member States discord over migration have influenced the reorientation of the EU Member States external security and defence policies In that increasingly important nexus the author proposes ideas for a more systematic approach to research

Globalization, Neo-conservative Policies, and Democratic Alternatives John Loxley,2005 Over the course of the last two decades governments around the world implemented a fundamental shift in the mainstream economic policy and ushered in a period of globalization These changes which are commonly known as neo conservative were resisted by a range of social forces from workers to farmers in the universities and on the streets With its diverse international perspectives of globalization and formulations of alternative economic policies this volume of essays responds to and posits alternatives for the uncreative and unjust policy decisions of world governments that negatively affect the welfare of the world's indigent people. This book's unifying theme is the principle of social justice that motivates Loxley's life and work. Loxley, an economist, is perhaps best known for his work in South Africa as an advisor to Nelson Mandela during the transition from apartheid and with First Nations communities in his native Canada. Many of the 19 essays explore the impact of globalization on the developing world, particularly Africa. A comprehensive and expansive exploration of the global impact of neo-conservative economic policies from an internationally diverse group of scholarly voices.
