An anthology of the love of God Lucy Menzies, Lumsden Barkway, 1976

God's Anthology Richard Denner, 2022

God and Man Leon Roth, 2021-11-29 Originally published in 1955 and containing some 500 passages this Biblical anthology brings together in their original wording the highest expressions of the Biblical view of life The anthology is non historical and non doctrinal It starts with the confrontations of man with God as seen in the calls of the prophets and proceeds to the ways of life demanded of man and the duties accompanying the privilege of vocation It ends with the visions of the ideal society which in times of trial the author believes have sustained the mind When this was first published the anthology used often forgotten texts and in so doing stimulated much attention to these enduring religious documents

The Profundity of God Barbara A. Armour, 2018-09-13 The Profundity of God is a compilation of poems inspired by God about God and about godly things It is intended to encourage excite inspire provoke and quicken the spirit drawing one nigh to God These poems may cause you to laugh cry and just maybe decide to get right with Jesus Let it take you to a higher place in your Christian walk with the LORD Surrender to God Allow Him to lead and guide you all the way

Without Absolutes, God Is Not God Ronald A Train, 2013-01-12 Absolutes As a Christian it is foundational I believe to hold to absolutes For example a Christian should have absolutes about God's ontology the principle of being absolutes about theology the study of God absolutes about Christology the study of Christ and absolutes about pneumatology the study of the Holy Spirit Each of the foregoing absolutes I believe impact upon how one constructs a world view and how one considers the wider implications of God's kingdom work hence why I have titled this collection of essays Without absolutes God is not God I guess the reader will be asking him or herself why is there a requirement to hold to absolutes The need for absolutes is not complex In reality the argument determines whether one is a believer or non believer in the triune God A believer will weigh whether God revelationally speaks into this world generally and specifically A non believer will object to such a proposition and as a consequence leave him or herself open to other belief systems To perhaps put it another way a non believer is faced with the choice of deciding whether God is a reality or whether God is a creation of human imagination Decision making then is crucial when accepting the triune God and his work Does one make a decision to believe in God empirically or does one make a decision to believe in God from a position of faith It is my view that God cannot be known empirically i e by trial or experience but rather he can only be known by faith However it depends on how we define faith Those who accept other belief systems would argue that they too have a faith or a belief in some god or person In the Christian context however faith is an action based on the accepted evidence In other words if one accepts that the written word of God is substantially true 2 Peter 1 20 21 and that the Word of God Jesus of Nazareth is who he is recorded as being or is who he claims to be John 1 1 5 14 6 7 then faith is given substance But I would go further and argue that authentic faith is derived from a spiritual encounter with God which then enables the recipients faith response to be one which is prompted or ignited by God My argument is supported from Scripture 1 Corinthians 12 9 Ephesians 2 8 9 and from personal experience Both of the foregoing references I suggest argue that faith is a gift which has its origin in God Hence faith is not only prompted by God but also sustained by him The analysis of such faith is that it is revelatory and constitutes an utter reliance on who God is and why he exists Revelatory Faith Evangelicals argue that faith is a gift from God However this argument is treated with caution by others Existentialism suggests that faith is made possible and so granted by the gracious approach and self disclosure of being Interestingly at this point there is no great variance between the latter perspective and Martin Luther who argued that faith originates with or is at least aroused by God Contemplating the third article of the Apostles Creed he wrote I believe that I cannot of my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord or come to him But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel enlightened me with His gifts sanctified and kept me in the true faith Modernists also argue that faith constitutes a persons response but only after having been drawn to Gods work of salvation This argument suggests faith to be an a priori act of God an act that prompts recognition that in the Christ God is endeavouring to share his own life This arousal of faith then affects worship praise and prayer and the practise of Christian discipleship The same argument suggests further that the prior love of God and the response of love that it generates are what shape a persons Christian faith Biblical support for these theological reflections is found in Ephesians

All Things Give God Glory Sally Rena,2006-11-07 An anthology of mainly Catholic writings which have given strength and courage to the compilers in times of hardship and difficulty A book of hope Before the Door of God Jay Hopler, Kimberly Johnson, 2013-11-26 Before the Door of God traces the development of devotional English language poetry from its origins in ancient hymnody to its current twenty first century incarnations The poems in this volume demonstrate not only that devotional poetry that speaks to the divine remains in vigorous practice but also that the tradition reaches back to the very origins of poetry in English There is a sense in these pages that the tradition of lyric poetry that developed was nearly inevitable given the inherent concerns of the genre Featuring the work of poets over a three thousand year period Before the Door of God places the devotional lyric in its cultural historical and aesthetic contexts The volume traces the various influences on this tradition and identifies features that persist in devotional lyric poetry across centuries cultures and stylistic differences To scholars literary professionals and general readers who find delight in fine poetry this anthology offers much to contemplate and discuss How I Found God in Everyone and Everywhere Andrew M. Davis, 2025-01-28 The spiritual journey is interior to each person but not meant to be walked alone Much can be gained from trailing the spiritual narratives of those who have traveled ahead of us for the God they have found we may never have considered How I Found God in Everyone and Everywhere Volume 2 again captures for a general audience the spiritual shift away from popular notions of a God up there and out there and toward immanent and inclusive understandings of a God in our very midst It is built around the fascinating personal journeys of a close knit group of prominent contributors leaders including Christopher M Bache Jude Currivan Amit Goswami Kabir Helminski Karen Johnson with Hameed Ali A H Almaas Sheri Kling Beverly Lanzetta Ervin Laszlo Jay McDaniel Raymond Moody Peter Russell Rupert Spira and Becca Tarnas From dark nights of suffering and despair to the joy of scientific and intellectual discovery to the aesthetic beauty of music and nature and the blissful and at times dreadful shock of psychedelic mystical and near death experience these spiritual memoirs reveal exceptional encounters with the Holy Mystery a universal Mind that exceeds but also includes our very own And unlike the first volume this new book is deliberately catered toward group study with its Questions for Discussion and Sages to Explore sections at the end of each chapter When Devil Married God SHELLY SHARMA, 2020-12-04 Life is a balancing act and opposites do attract Life and Death God and Devil Weak and Strong Man and Woman Wrong and Right Black and White and Day and Night The conflict continue A just and placid world will be a boring one So we have the unjust and perturbed one just to restore balance and make everything equal However equality is a cruel word Ask the pans of a balancing scale put Adam in one and Eve in the other and you have a story to tell An Anthology of the Love of God Lunsden Barkway, Lucy Menzies, 1981-05-01 God Stephen Hayward, Sarah Lefanu, 1992 Contemplative and funny The Independent on Sunday UK Short stories from authors with religious backgrounds ranging from Zoroastrian to Jewish Roman Catholicism to Moslem the tales in this witty and refreshing collection explore the theme of religion God Anthology Mark Batterson, 2013-01-02 Looking for a more God centric and less topical approach to group Bible study God Anthology by Mark Batterson guides groups on an exploration into six of the critical aspects of God's character and personhood. In some respects, this study captures the essence of A.W. Tozer's classic The Knowledge of the Holy for a new generation. But what makes God Anthology original is the way music and media are incorporated into the experience. National Community Church worship staff has written, composed, and arranged original music for each of the critical aspects of who God is. This experience will not only utilize these songs worshipfully but will also integrate the use of QR codes, video, and other forms of media as well. The six aspects explored in this resource include: Merciful, Holy, Mysterious, Jealous, Sovereign, Incomparable. Features Kit includes a Member Book, a DVD-ROM, and a music CD/DVD-ROM. Features six 10 to 15 minute teaching videos, leader helps, and preaching and church campaign aids. Member Book includes a small group experience for six sessions, individual devotions for each week, video discussion starters, and leader notes.

in praise of god, 1974 Faith in God and Generals

Theodore Baehr, 2003. Faith in God and Generals was penned and collected by my friends Ted Baehr and Susan Wales. As the pages of this anthology unfold, you will also become acquainted more intimately with many of the characters in the film. Even in a three-plus hour film, there is much more to be told about the historical characters. The authors/editors have provided us with a closer look at these brave men and women as a companion piece to the movie. While the contributors of this inspiring book have expanded brilliantly on some of the characters appearing in the film, others in Faith in God and Generals are faces without names, and now they too will come alive on the pages of this book. Some of these gripping tales depict the strength, the angst, and the faith of the women left behind who loved these brave men.

God, Help Us! R.J. Chandler Sr, 2017-05-16 God Help Us is an anthology of writings that explore the many challenges of the universal church as it wrestles with its relevancy in a fast paced ever evolving and diverse culture Has the church moved away from the tenets of Christ Many Christians have redefined the Ten Commandments holiness and true faith to suit their personal needs Therefore each chapter in its approach deals with some of the ills of the world that have infiltrated the ranks of the church such as but not limited to mental illness dishonesty sin church hurt misguided leadership narcissism poor fiscal management and sexual indecency I'm afraid that each topic has led to the decline of church attendance quieted its prophetic voice in the community and drastically reduced the effectiveness of saving souls This book provides recommendations for going back to our first love which is Jesus and His mission purposeful living balance and wellness It is my hope that this book transcends denominational affiliation and touches each generation to win the world for Christ one soul at a time
