

A dirt path winds through a vineyard, flanked by rows of grapevines supported by wooden stakes. The scene is captured at sunset, with a warm, orange and pink sky and soft, golden light filtering through the clouds. The path leads towards the horizon, creating a sense of depth and perspective.

God calls us to perfection, but he is not a perfectionist. And perfection is reached not so much by external conformity to an ideal as by inner faithfulness to God's inspirations.

Ambridge, 2011-04-06 Sometimes we don't believe we can do what God tells us to do or be what God commands us to be simply because we don't understand what He wants That's what happens for many Christians when they hear that famous command Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect Right away we fall back to our personal human interpretation and decide that perfect isn't really what Jesus meant because perfect represents to us a level and a quality that is way beyond our reach Then we start feeling guilty about not being able to hit the mark so we start lowering the target Now it's not perfection God wants but maturity That's how we fix it up Jesus didn't really mean for us to be perfect He meant for us to be mature Maturity is a process a time line along which a person travels to reach a certain condition or state That's not what perfection in God is It's not a process it's a decision If we make the decision to be perfect as God has commanded will He not make it possible for us to do that When has God ever commanded us to do something or be something and not made the way for us to do that and be that Has He not given the tools and the ministries to help us do that Do we not have the presence of God the leadership teaching and example of Jesus the guidance of His Word and the power of the Holy Spirit to do what God the Father through Jesus has commanded us to do If God has given us all that and made it possible for us to honor His command and be perfect as He is perfect who is qualified to say we can't do it St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians, with intr., paraphrase, and notes by C.J.
