Globalising Education:

Globalizing Education Michael W. Apple, Jane Kenway, Michael Singh, 2005 Because globalization is expressed in many ways and evokes complex responses it demands various lines of analysis Globalizing Education shows how this phenomenon is mediated and mitigated by a range of educational policies pedagogies and politics It identifies the forms of educational governance associated with neoliberal globalism and their manifold effects on nation state education systems highlighting the colonizing minority world imperatives and retraditionalizing ramifications It also shows how the global cultural economy the disjunctive flows of images people and ideas both challenges and reinforces conventional educational trajectories The global national mesh works created by drugs technology and unions are among the complicated connectivities explored This book exposes the more pernicious effects on education of neo liberal and corporate globalization and explores and identifies innovative and transformative educational policies pedagogies and politics

Globalising Education: Trends and Applications Robin Mason, 2005-06-23 This book examines the educational and socio cultural issues arising from the globalization of education

Higher Education in a Globalising World J. Enders, Oliver Fulton, 2012-12-06 This Festschrift is dedicated to Ulrich Teichler who is celebrating his sixtieth birth day in 2002 Ulrich Teichler has been a central actor in the development of the field of research on higher education in Germany Europe and beyond Not only has he dedicated his professional career to studying a large number of higher education topics through national and international research projects He was also in the fore front of the efforts to strengthen the structure and profile of higher education research for example through his involvement in the establishment of the Consortium of Higher Education Researchers CHER In addition he has contributed to many important scholarly works reflecting on the state of the art and the nature of the field The conventional wisdom is that working in a university or college makes you an expert on higher education Consequently while academics like to do research on every possible topic they are in general reluctant to examine their own social institution Within the European context Ulrich Teichler is one of the main exceptions to this rule Already in his student days he has recognised the unique characteristics of higher education institutions and systems and he understood that special efforts are needed to improve our knowledge on higher education

Globalization of Education Joel Spring, 2008-11-19 Continuing Joel Spring s reportage and analysis of the intersection of global forces and education this text offers a comprehensive overview and synthesis of current research theories and models related to the topic Spring introduces readers to the processes institutions and forces by which schooling has been globalized and examines the impact of these forces on schooling in local contexts Designed for courses on globalization and education international and comparative education educational foundations multicultural education and educational policy the text is written in a clear narrative style to engage readers in thoughtful consideration of topics discussed Each chapter includes Key Points that summarize the content and suggest issues and questions for critical analysis discussion and debate

Globalization and Education Nelly P.

Stromquist, Karen Monkman, 2000 With increased opportunities for interaction and learning education around the world is becoming transformed These essays strive to provide a thorough examination of the impact these changes are having on how education is defined whom it serves and how it is assessed around the world Topics include Conceptual issues Globalization and internationalism educational reform curriculum inquiry Globalization impact in educational sectors European community colleges labor markets gender schooling Adult education Case Studies of Globalization Impacts Commonwealth Caribbean Japan Lesoto Mexico South Africa Malaysia Australia Globalization and International Education Robin Shields, 2013-04-11 Considers the key international issues in education and investigates the changes stemming from the rapid social economic and cultural transformations associated with globalization Global Education Barbara Benham Tye, Kenneth A. Tye, 1992-01-01 Globalizing Education Policy Fazal Rizvi, Bob Lingard, 2009-12-04 Rizvi and Lingard's account of the global politics of education is thoughtful complex and compelling It is the first really comprehensive discussion and analysis of global trends in education policy their effects structural and individual and resistance to them In the enormous body of writing on globalisation this book stands out and will become a basic text in education policy courses around the world Stephen J Ball Karl Mannheim Professor of Sociology of Education Institute of Education University of London UK In what ways have the processes of globalization reshaped the educational policy terrain How might we analyse education policies located within this new terrain which is at once local national regional and global In Globalizing Education Policy the authors explore the key global drivers of policy change in education and suggest that these do not operate in the same way in all nation states They examine the transformative effects of globalization on the discursive terrain within which educational policies are developed and enacted arguing that this terrain is increasingly informed by a range of neo liberal precepts which have fundamentally changed the ways in which we think about educational governance They also suggest that whilst in some countries these precepts are resisted to some extent they have nonetheless become hegemonic and provide an overview of some critical issues in educational policy to which this hegemonic view of globalization has given rise including devolution and decentralization new forms of governance the balance between public and private funding of education access and equity and the education of girls curriculum particularly with respect to the teaching of English language and technology pedagogies and high stakes testing and the global trade in education These issues are explored within the context of major shifts in global processes and ideological discourses currently being experienced and negotiated by all countries The book also provides an approach to education policy analysis in an age of globalization and will be of interest to those studying globalization and education policy across the social sciences Visions in Global Education Toni Fuss Kirkwood-Tucker, 2009 This book is a compilation of new scholarship in the field of global education Previously unaddressed or barely touched upon topics include the historical evolution of the global education movement the development of a foundation for the formation of a philosophy of global education an analysis of the competing orientations of global education and multicultural education mentorship in global education pedagogy based on the master apprentice model and the latest research of the impact of national policies in education on global teacher education practice A unique contribution captures the complexities and geopolitical context during Russia s early hours of democracy in integrating global education in Russian education Written by internationally acclaimed scholars this book is at the cutting edge of new creative scholarship in global education Visions in Global Education is a must read for teachers in every stage of their careers and will be useful in a variety of classrooms addressing global education

Global Learning and Education Andrew Peterson,Paul Warwick,2014-10-24 What is globalisation How are its effects felt by different people across the world How can we help young people flourish in a world characterised by globalisation Conflict poverty breaches of human rights and environmental sustainability are everyday issues for global citizens today old and young Global Learning and Education presents a detailed and challenging introduction to a central concern facing education systems and curricula around the world How young people understand and experience globalisation and how meaningful global learning can be developed Encouraging a critical and reflective approach in order to advance understanding of a range of theoretical and practical factors it considers the meaning and definitions of globalisation global citizenship and global education Global Learning and Education explores key issues including interconnectedness and interdependency cultural diversity social justice and sustainable development It considers how global learning should and can imbue all aspects of education within curriculum subjects through project based learning and through extra curricular activities that help students participate and engage in global issues It argues the importance of the mission and ethos of a school itself of shaping global learning for different educational contexts and of ensuring teaching and learning meets the needs of individual learners Global Learning and Education is a comprehensive thought provoking sometimes contentious introduction for educationalists concerned with what globalisation means for our young people Illustrated throughout with case studies that seek to inspire creativity and hope and including questions and suggested reading for further investigation it is essential reading for all those involved in the teaching and learning of young people as well as those studying this vital topic on Education Studies and Masters level courses

Comparative and International Research in Education Michael Crossley,Keith Watson,2003 This book is designed as a text on how to go about setting up and effectively running international research projects The State of Global Education Brad Maguth,Jeremy Hilburn,2015-04-10 A battle is being waged in classrooms and capitals around the world over the goals and objectives of the future of global education While there is growing research in the area of global education much remains to be uncovered challenged and learned through sound empirical research and conceptual explorations What type of global citizens will schools promote What types of policies programs and instructional practices best promote effective global citizenship Will global education curricula advance an unwavering loyalty to neoliberal ideologies and interests over the strengthening of human rights and the environmental health of our planet This volume presents a series of research studies and innovative instructional practices centered on advancing global learning opportunities and literacies The authors in this volume initiate a much needed conversation on ways students in multiple contexts can and should learn with the world and its people Part I addresses global education in theory with a particular focus on development intercultural competence and global citizenship Part II addresses educational programs and practices that foster global learning and action to help build a better future for all citizens of our planet including experiential education university initiatives and conceptual approaches to teaching and learning This scholarship spans four continents in a multitude of educational contexts primary secondary and tertiary each with a focus on a different dimension of the possibilities and pitfalls in teaching about and with the world and its people

The Impact of Globalization on Education Ilghiz M. Sinagatullin,2006 The notion of globalisation and its relation to education is widely being discussed among politicians philosophers scholars educators and students throughout the world Some fully reject and refuse to accept this phenomenon others try to understand and accept this notion still others completely accept the idea of globalisation and associate with it all progressive changes in the new century s socio cultural and educational space Moreover for a considerable part of the planet s residents the very spirit of the terms globalism and globalisation still remains an unknown enigmatic almost supernatural entity The contemporary globalising epoch is characterised by pervasive events making a considerable affect on human development human consciousness and on various aspects of education and child development information and knowledge the digitisation of information and virtualisation of objective reality the spreading of the English language as an essential global tool for education and international communication the dissemination of the ideas of global and multicultural education the rise of the European Union the market orientation of Russian and the former entities of the former Socialist block the spreading of the cultural and educational canons of the Anglo American or Atlantic civilisation upon other cultures and civilisations and unparalleled demographic growth especially in Eastern and Southern cultures
