Finden's Tableaux William Finden, 1839 The Routledge Anthology of Global Science Fiction Origins Bill Gillard, 2025-11-28 The Routledge Anthology of Global Science Fiction Origins brings together short stories from writers of science fiction from all over the world who were at the vanguard of the genre from 1872-1942. Beginning with a dynamic and engaging introduction, Bill Gillard provides accessible introductions to each text to offer key insights into the historical and cultural conditions that led to their publication. The collection features work from a wide range of authors, many for the first time in English translation, including less familiar voices from the early days of the emergent tradition and invites an exciting recontextualization of the more well-known texts. Authors include Karel Čapek, Xu Nianci, Franz Kafka, Adela Zamudio, Leopoldo Lugones, Juza Unno, Tawfiq al-Hakim, and others. The first anthology focused on global science fiction during this pivotal era, and this collection offers vital new perspectives on the field by featuring the forerunners of science fiction. It is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of both science fiction and world literature.

Infernal War Ezra Carias, 2020-10-01 Lucifer and the angels who rebelled with him got thrown out of Heaven. They, along with the inhabitants of Earth, find themselves in a despicable place. They all blame Lucifer for their current predicament and want revenge. Ovnion, Lucifer's old ally and former king of Earth, is the only one to approach Lucifer with a different purpose. Ovnion wants to ally with Lucifer. He thinks if they work together, they might survive. Lucifer will use Ovnion to become the sole ruler over both angels and Earth beings. As the fallen angels and Earth beings fight amongst themselves, Lucifer will do everything in his power to use their war to his advantage.

Poems Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 1912 When Angels Cry Robert Wright, 2006 This book culminates years of study and research by its writer, Robert Wright. While still a child, Robert, intrigued by discussions held by his parents and family friends as they celebrated the Sabbath hours on Friday evenings and Saturdays, developed a love for Bible prophecy and history. Educated in both public and private Christian schools, Robert has a Masters degree in Educational Psychology. Of his many interests, Bible prophecy is his passion. In this book, the writer examines Seventh-day Adventist beliefs concerning Babylon the Great. He addresses the issues head-on, challenging traditional views, providing alternative perspectives, yet leaving intact the essential truths espoused by the church regarding the Papacy. The symbols of Revelation 12, 17, and 18 are re-examined as the writer presents evidence that suggests Babylon the Great does not symbolize the Papacy as traditionally taught. This book offers a Bible-based defense of what Babylon symbolizes. Most importantly, this book encourages the reader to rely on the Bible as its own expositor, the only source upon which to establish faith, as it introduces compelling insights regarding the message of the angel of Revelation 18. The message of this angel, the fourth angel's message, accompanied by the outpouring of the latter rain, represents God's final warning to the inhabitants of a planet destined for destruction. Yet at the same time, the message offers hope, a means of escape for all people that heed the Divine invitation to come out of Babylon.
