

BAPTISM GUIDELINES FOR PARENTS

1. Name

Choosing an appropriate name for your baby is one of the most important things for parents. It will be special to the child and also special to God.

By Catholic custom and Tradition, parents are encouraged to name their children after the Saints. Why? Because your child is becoming a member of the Church, he would then have his/her Saint as a role model and a patron in heaven – a friend in higher places, so to speak.

Becoming a member of the Church, the child belongs to a family not only on earth but in heaven too. And with the communion of Saints, the baby will be supported and loved not only on earth but also by the family of God in heaven.

Parents, sponsors (godparents) and the pastor are to see that a name is not given which is foreign to Christian sentiment.(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2156)

2. Choice of Godparents

The choice of godparents is entirely up to the parents but there are a few pointers which parents might want to consider when making their choice. But it is a decision not to be taken lightly. Too often parents want to honour a special friend or relative. If parents want to be happy about their decision, please consider the following.

Godparents are to assist the child's parents in raising their child in our Catholic faith so that the child may profess and live it as an adult.

To ensure the godparent is capable of this, Church law insists that the godparent:-

- Must be at least 16 years old (for maturity's sake),
- Fully initiated (having received Eucharist and Confirmation),
- Be someone other than the legal parents, and
- One who leads a life in harmony with the Church.

Parents should choose good practicing Catholics as godparents. Godparents should be faithful individuals who are ready to accept the responsibility of looking after a godchild. Therefore, parents should choose godparents not just because of blood relationship or friendship; rather, godparents should be trustworthy witnesses of the faith who will help their godchildren attain salvation.

A Catholic who does not practice the faith by regularly attending Mass or who is in an invalid marriage disqualifies himself/herself from being a godparent. Moreover, if a person is Catholic but antagonistic to the faith, i.e. has the attitude "I am a Catholic but...", would not be a good example and witness to the faith and also disqualifies himself/herself.

A child only needs one godparent for Baptism – male or female – but may have two, one male and one female. Here, the Code of Canon Law wants to eliminate the practice of having numerous godparents, as has occurred in some cultures.
