Fin De Siecle Splendor:

Fin-de-Siècle Splendor Dewei Wang, 1997 The reigning view of literary historians has been that the May Fourth movement of 1919 marks the division between the traditional and the modern in Chinese literature This book argues that signs of reform and innovation can be discerned long before May Fourth and that as China entered the arena of modern international history in the late Qing it was already developing its own complex matrix of incipient modernities It demonstrates that late Qing fiction nurtured a creative innovative poetics one that was spurned by the reformers of the May Fourth generation in favor of Western style realism The author recognizes that a full account of modern Chinese fiction needs to ask why so many genres styles themes and figures found in late imperial fiction were repressed by modern Chinese literary discourse He focuses on four genres of late Qing fiction that have been either rudely dismissed in pejorative terms or simply ignored depravity romances court case and chivalric cycles grotesque exposés and scientific fantasies The author shows that in spite of the realist orthodoxy that has dominated Chinese literature since the May Fourth movement these unwelcome genres have continually found their way back into mainstream discourse their influence being increasingly evident in recent decades This first comprehensive study of late Qing fiction discusses more than sixty works at least half of which have rarely or never been dealt with by Western or Chinese scholars Richly informed by contemporary literary theory this book constitutes a polemical rethinking of the nature of Chinese literary and cultural modernity Feminism/femininity in Chinese Literature Whitney Crothers Dilley, 2002 The present volume of Critical Studies is a collection of selected essays on the topic of feminism and femininity in Chinese literature Although feminism has been a hot topic in Chinese literary circles in recent years this remarkable collection represents one of the first of its kind to be published in English The essays have been written by well known scholars and feminists including Kang I Sun Chang of Yale University and Li Ziyun a writer and feminist in Shanghai China The essays are inter and multi disciplinary covering several historical periods in poetry and fiction from the Ming Qing periods to the twentieth century In particular the development of women's writing in the New Period post 1976 is examined in depth The articles thus offer the reader a composite and broad perspective of feminism and the treatment of the female in Chinese literature As this remarkable new collection attests the voices of women in China have begun calling out loudly in ways that challenge prevalent views about the Chinese female persona Literature, Modernity, and the Practice of Resistance Margaret Hillenbrand, 2007 This book is a cross cultural interdisciplinary study which compares responses to modernity in the literary cultures of contemporary Japan and Taiwan Moving beyond the East West paradigm that has traditionally dominated comparativism the volume explores these literatures within the regional frame

Critical Plant Studies in Taiwan Iping Liang, 2024-04-23 Critical Plant Studies in Taiwan presents a historical overview of vegetal ecocriticism in Taiwan Divided into 12 chapters it examines the human plant entanglements on the island Covering a wide spectrum of topics such as the imperial plant explorations the military casuarina afforestation the mangrove conservation movement the ecofeminist rooftop garden the Indigenous millet restoration the underground mycorrhizal network in urban Taipei etc it discloses the phyto politics in the historical context of the vegetal materialist condition of the island Intersecting the poetics and politics of plant narratives it presents the multispecies plantscapes of the island The first of its kind the collection launches the historical and localized critical plant studies in Taiwan Fin-de-Siècle Splendor David Der-wei Wang,2022 The reigning view of literary historians has been that the May Fourth movement of 1919 marks the division between the traditional and the modern in Chinese literature This book argues that signs of reform and innovation can be discerned long before May Fourth and that as China entered the arena of modern international history in the late Qing it was already developing its own complex matrix of incipient modernities It demonstrates that late Qing fiction nurtured a creative innovative poetics one that was spurned by the reformers of the May Fourth generation in favor of Western style realism The author recognizes that a full account of modern Chinese fiction needs to ask why so many genres styles themes and figures found in late imperial fiction were repressed by modern Chinese literary discourse He focuses on four genres of late Qing fiction that have been either rudely dismissed in pejorative terms or simply ignored depravity romances court case and chivalric cycles grotesque exposés and scientific fantasies The author shows that in spite of the realist orthodoxy that has dominated Chinese literature since the May Fourth movement these unwelcome genres have continually found their way back into mainstream discourse their influence being increasingly evident in recent decades This first comprehensive study of late Qing fiction discusses more than sixty works at least half of which have rarely or never been dealt with by Western or Chinese scholars Richly informed by contemporary literary theory this book constitutes a polemical rethinking of the nature of Chinese literary and cultural modernity Intimacies, Critical Consumption and Diverse Economies Yvette Taylor,Emma Casey,2015-10-21 This collection explores the relationships between the emotional and material engaging with and developing the debates surrounding the emotional and material labour involved in producing and reproducing domestic and intimate spaces The contributions examine the geographies and spaces of consumption in international and local global spheres Postcolonial and Queer Theories John Charles Hawley,2001-02-28 Since the 1960s American and Western European gays have set the agenda for sexual liberation and defined its emergence Western models of homosexuality often provide the only globally recognizable frameworks for discussing gay and lesbian cultures around the world and thus Western interpretive schemes are imposed on non Western societies At the same time gay and lesbian lifestyles in emerging countries do not always neatly fit Western paradigms and data from those countries often clash with dominant Western models So too the literature of emerging countries often depicts homosexuality in ways which challenge the existing tools of Western literary critics The thirteen contributors to this book examine the implied imposition of a heavily capitalistic white and generally male model of homosexuality on the emerging world By combining postcolonial and queer theoretical approaches this volume suggests alternative frameworks for describing sexuality around the world and for exploring non Western literary representations of gay and lesbian lifestyles The volume concludes with a chapter assessing new questions in both postcolonial and queer theorizing that suggest common concerns and many avenues for future research
