Extreme Virtue:

Extreme Virtue Crispin Sartwell,2003-11-20 Explores leadership and civic virtue in American culture Moral Virtue and Nature Stephen R. Brown,2008-04-10 What make someone a good human being Is there an objective answer to this question an answer that can be given in naturalistic terms For ages philosophers have attempted to develop some sort of naturalistic ethics Against ethical naturalism however notable philosophers have contended that such projects are impossible due to the existence of some sort of gap between facts and values Others have suggested that teleology upon which many forms of ethical naturalism depend is an outdated metaphysical concept This book argues that a good human being is one who has those traits the possession of which enables someone to achieve those ends natural to beings like us Thus the answer to the question of what makes a good human being is given in terms both objective and naturalistic The author shows that neither is ought gaps nor objections concerning teleology pose insurmountable problems for naturalistic virtue ethics This work is a much needed contribution to the ongoing debate about ethical theory and ethical virtue Extreme Virtue Crispin Sartwell,2003-11-20 Explores leadership and civic virtue in American culture Feeling Our Feelings: What Philosophers Think and People Know Eva Brann,2008-10-01 A dazzling wealth of stimulating reflection and wise insight To read Feeling Our Feelings is to relive one s own early moments of intellectual awakening with the all the advantages of age and experience Eva Brann proves to be a most steady and enlightening guide on an inquiry into the relation between life and thought that few have pursued so thoroughly Susan Shell Department of Political Science Boston College In Feeling Our Feelings Eva Brann considers what the great philosophers on the passions and feelings have thought and written about them She examines the relevant work of Plato Aristotle the Stoics Aquinas Descartes Spinoza Adam Smith Hume Kierkegaard and Heidegger and also includes a chapter on contemporary studies on the brain Feeling Our Feelings provides a comprehensive look at this pervasive and elusive topic Feeling our feelings comes from the words a little boy called Zeke said to me some thirty years ago when he was four I was swinging him in a park in Cambridge Massachusetts and not doing it right Swing me higher he said I want to feel my feelings The phrase stuck with me you might say it festered in my mind it agitated questions Why do we all want to feel our feelings so generally that people not in touch with them are thought to be in need of therapy What feeling was swinging high inducing Was it an exultation of the body or an exhilaration of the soul When he wanted to be feeling his feelings was there a difference between the general feeling the mere consciousness of being affected and his particular feelings the distinguishable affects as when you sing a song there is a difference between the singing done and the song sung or is there Eva Brann from her Preface □□□□ □□□□ Moses Maimonides,1912 "The" Works of Alexander Pope Alexander Pope,1871 The Works of Alexander Pope Pope,1871 Ainslee's ,1926 Aristotle on Emotions in Law and Politics Liesbeth Huppens-Cluysenaer,Nuno M.M.S. Coelho,2018-02-13 In this book experts from the fields of law and philosophy explore the works of Aristotle to illuminate the much debated and fascinating relationship between emotions and justice Emotions matter in connection with democracy and equity they are relevant to the judicial enforcement of rights legal argumentation and decision making processes in legislative bodies and courts The decisive role that emotions feelings and passions play in these processes cannot be ignored not even by those who believe that emotions have no legitimate place in the public sphere A growing body of literature on these topics recognizes the seminal insights contributed by Aristotle This book offers a comprehensive analysis of his thinking in this context as well as proposals for inspiring dialogues between his works and those written by a selection of modern and contemporary thinkers As such the book offers a valuable resource for students of law philosophy rhetoric politics ethics and history but also for readers interested in the ongoing debate about legal positivism and the relevance of emotions for legal and political life in today s world
