

Specify computation formula

A diagram illustrating the construction of a computation formula. It features four dropdown menus, each labeled "Account group". The first two are arranged horizontally and connected by a plus sign. Below them, two more "Account group" dropdowns are arranged horizontally, also connected by a plus sign. A vertical plus sign connects the first dropdown of the top row to the first dropdown of the bottom row. A second vertical plus sign connects the second dropdown of the top row to the second dropdown of the bottom row. This layout represents a formula like (A + B) + (C + D).

You can mix and match account groups, accounts, or constants in your formula.
