Haakenson,2021-05-06 Grotesque Visions focuses on the radical avant garde interventions of Salomo Friedl nder aka Mynona Til Brugman and Hannah H ch as they challenged the questionable practices and evidentiary claims of late 19th and early 20th century science Demonstrating the often excessive measures that pathologists anthropologists sexologists and medical professionals went to present their research in a seemingly unambiguous way this volume shows how Friedl nder Mynona Brugman H ch and other Berlin based artists used the artistic grotesque to criticize satirize and subvert a variety of forms of supposed scientific objectivity The volume concludes by examining the exhibition Grotesk 130 Jahre Kunst der Frechheit Comic Grotesque Wit and Mockery in German Arts 1870 1940 In contrast to the ahistorical and amorphous concept informing the exhibition Thomas O Haakenson reveals a unique deployment of the artistic grotesque that targeted specific established and emerging scientific discourses at the turn of the last fin de si cle      Magic and Fetishism Alfred Cort Haddon,1906      MAGIC AND FETISHISM ALFRED C. Crosses disciplinary boundaries to explore German Romantic writing about visual experience and the interplay of text and image in Romantic epistemology The work of the groundbreaking writers and artists of German Romanticism including the writers Tieck Brentano and Eichendorff and the artists Caspar David Friedrich and Philipp Otto Runge followed from the philosophical arguments of the German Idealists who placed emphasis on exploring the subjective space of the imagination The Romantic perspective was a form of engagement with Idealist discourses especially Kant's Critique of Pure Reason and Fichte's Science of Knowledge Through an aggressive speculative reading of Kant the Romantics abandoned the binary distinction between the palpable outer world and the ungraspable space of the mind's eye and were therefore compelled to develop new terms for understanding the distinction between internal and external In this light Brad Prager urges a reassessment of some of Romanticism's major oppositional tropes contending that binaries such as self and other symbol and allegory and light and dark should be understood as alternatives to Lessing's distinction between interior and exterior worlds Prager thus crosses the boundaries between philosophy literature and art history to explore German Romantic writing about visual experience examining the interplay of text and image in the formulation of Romantic epistemology Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri Columbia
