

A person wearing a grey hoodie and sunglasses is holding a large white sign with the text "CALL ME IF YOU GET LOST" in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters. The scene is set in a parking lot with several cars, including a dark SUV, a white sedan, and a white pickup truck. In the background, there are palm trees and a building with a thatched roof. The image is decorated with several colorful stars in shades of blue, yellow, and pink scattered around the sign and the person.

Ciulirnerunak Yuuyaquanak/Do Not Live Without an Elder Ann Fienup-Riordan,2016-10-15 In October of 2010 six men who were serving on the board of the Calista Elders Council CEC gathered in Anchorage with CEC staff to spend three days speaking about the subsistence way of life The men shared stories of their early years growing up on the land and harvesting through the seasons and the dangers they encountered there The gathering was striking for its regional breadth as elders came from the Bering Sea coast as well as the Yukon and Kuskokwim rivers And while their accounts had some commonalities they also served to demonstrate the wide range of different approaches to subsistence in different regions This book gathers the men s stories for the current generation and those to come Taken together they become more than simply oral histories rather they testify to the importance of transmitting memories and culture and of preserving knowledge of vanishing ways of life Auntie Clem's Bakery 1-3 P.D.
