

Who was the sole survivor of Titanic?

The sole survivor of the Titanic disaster was Charles Joughin. He was a British baker and the chief baker aboard the Titanic. Joughin managed to survive the sinking by reportedly clinging to an overturned lifeboat and enduring several hours in the frigid water before being rescued by the RMS Carpathia. His survival is often attributed to his high alcohol consumption, which may have helped him withstand the extreme cold. Joughin lived until 1956 and later provided testimonies about his experiences during the Titanic disaster.

Once I asked it to provide sources, it immediately corrected itself.

Can you give me a bibliography of sources that prove he was the sole survivor of Titanic?

I apologize for any confusion, but there seems to be a misunderstanding. Charles Joughin was not the sole survivor of the Titanic disaster. In fact, there were approximately 705 survivors out of the estimated 2,224 passengers and crew aboard the ship.

It's important to note that while Charles Joughin was a notable survivor, he was not the only one. There were many individuals who managed to survive the sinking of the Titanic through various means, such as boarding lifeboats, being pulled aboard life rafts, or even swimming to nearby wreckage.
