Eucharistic Way:

How Did Jesus Want the Eucharist? Wucherpennig, Ansgar, SJ, 2024 At the last supper with his disciples Jesus thought more about life than about death For him the focus was on the meal the eating together not atonement Correspondingly in the early days of Christianity people met for feasts in which they experienced the presence of the Risen One These celebrations had different forms and yet were connected in unity This book shows that the role of women ministry and ecumenism in the Eucharist must be rethought Eucharist: A Guide for the Perplexed Ralph N. McMichael, 2010-08-19 An exploration of the complexities perplexities raised by asking what is the Eucharist God-Walk Frederick Herzog, 2008-07-01 Challenging and disturbing and ultimately healing Robert McAfee Brown author of Liberation Theology An Introductory Guide Frederick Herzog was Professor at the Duke University Divinity School He served on numerous commissions of the World Council of Churches and the United Church of Christ In the spring of 1970 he wrote the first North American article on liberation theology and in 1972 his Liberation Theology was published a study of the Fourth Gospel described by Robert McAfee Brown as a pioneer North American work In Justice Church Herzog continues his pioneering work with a North American methodology of liberation theology A Eucharistic Vision and the Spirituality of St Francis of Assisi Mark Turnham Elvins, 2007 Devotion to the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood lies at the heart of the spirituality of St Francis and his vision was to inspire the Church's development over the succeeding centuries Writing in this Franciscan tradition Br Mark offers his own insights on the Eucharist and St Francis insights that were first shared at an annual retreat of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal This book provides a unique series of meditations for Eucharistic devotion Although each is a separate reflection on the Eucharist in the life of the Church there is an implied centrality of the Sacrament in the life of any Catholic wishing to deepen the life of prayer In this St Francis can be our model and our guide as one of the original pioneers of extra Eucharistic devotion Just as in the thirteenth century his example helped to renew the life of the Church confronted by many crises so in our own day the Church hedged about with conflict and compromise and with declining vocations is seeing a revival of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament as perhaps the first sign of renewal He writes about spirituality as a lived experience of God shared by all whether they know it or not Mark Elvin's book will hopefully deepen our awareness of God's presence in both the Eucharist and the world Rt Rev Patrick O Donoghue Bishop of Lancaster Br Mark Fr Mark Elvins is a Capuchin friar Born in 1939 at Whitstable Br Mark took an MA at London University and a graduate diploma in spirituality at Dublin He is the author of Cardinals and Heraldry and of three other books published by Gracewing Catholic Trivia Gospel Chivalry and Towards a People's Liturgy The Eucharistic Vision of Laudato Si Lucas Briola, 2022-12-28 No other encyclical has generated as much conversation both Catholic and non Catholic as Laudato si Often forgotten in these conversations is the theological heart and eucharistic vision of the encyclical and its integral ecology Even the title of Laudato si Praised be signals the centrality of right praise in caring for our common home

Using Bernard Lonergan's theology of history this book unearths the doxological eucharistic vision that shapes the encyclical's integral presentation of social and ecological conversion. It offers the first book-length study that recovers the eucharistic nature of Laudato si. In drawing out the eucharistic vision of Laudato si, the book accomplishes several feats for the reader. It roots the eucharistic dimensions of the encyclical in the writings of Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI, showing how Pope Francis develops their thought in notable ways. It introduces Bernard Lonergan's theology of history, showing how his framework can capture the eucharistic contours of caring for our common home, so too in light of Laudato si does the book expand his theology of history to incorporate both ecological concern and the doxological eucharistic essence of the church. The book assembles a liturgically shaped systematic account of the church's social mission. It joins poles otherwise sundered in a polarized church and world: between worship and justice, between concerns for human life and concerns for the natural world. Realizing the eucharistic vision of Laudato si promises much for our contemporary moment. Pope Francis recently observed that the integral ecology of Laudato si holds the key for the world's recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. The U.S. Catholic Bishops recently launched a Eucharistic Revival that aims to rekindle eucharistic devotion and praxis. The Eucharistic Vision of Laudato Si: Praise, Conversion, and Integral Ecology supplies a timely study that helps fulfill these intertwined calls.

The Eucharist, Poetics, and Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton Shaun Ross, 2023-03-22. The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton explains the astonishing centrality of the eucharist to poets with a variety of denominational affiliations writing on a range of subjects across an extended period in literary history. Whether they are praying, thinking about politics, lamenting unrequited love, or telling fart jokes, late medieval and early modern English poets return again and again to the eucharist as a way of working out literary problems. Tracing this connection from the fourteenth through the seventeenth century, this book shows how controversies surrounding the nature of signification in the sacrament informed understandings of poetry. Connecting medieval to early modern England, it presents a history of eucharistic poetics as it appears in the work of seven key poets: the Pearl poet, Chaucer, Robert Southwell, John Donne, George Herbert, Richard Crashaw, and John Milton. Reassessing this range of poetic voices, The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization overturns an oft-repeated argument that early modern poetry's fascination with the eucharist resulted from the Protestant rejection of transubstantiation and its supposedly enchanted worldview. Instead of this tired secularization story, it fleshes out a more capacious conception of eucharistic presence, showing that what interested poets about the eucharist was its insistence that the mechanics of representation are always entangled with the self's relation to the body and to others. The book thus forwards a new historical account of eucharistic poetics, placing this literary phenomenon within a longstanding negotiation between embodiment and disembodiment in Western religious and cultural history.

More Than Communion Scott MacDougall, 2015-05-21. The dominant contemporary model for ecclesiology, theological views of the church itself is the ecclesiology of communion. MacDougall argues that communion ecclesiologies are often marked by a problematic theological imagination of the future eschatology He argues further that as a result our ways of practising and being the church are not as robust as they might otherwise be Re imagining the church in the light of God s promised future then becomes a critical conceptual and practical task MacDougall presents a detailed exploration of what communion ecclesiologies are and some of the problems they raise He offers two case studies of such theologies by examining how distinguished theologians John Zizioulas and John Milbank understand the church and the future how these combine in their work and the conceptual and practical implications of their perspectives He then offers an alternative theological view and demonstrates the effects that such a shift would have In doing so MacDougall offers a proposal for recovering the more to communion and to ecclesiology to help us imagine a church that is not beyond the world as in Zizioulas or over against the world as in Milbank but in and for the world in love and service This concept is worked out in conversation with systematic theologians such as J rgen Moltmann Wolfhart Pannenberg and Johannes Baptist Metz and by engaging with a theology of Christian practices currently being developed by practical theologians such as Dorothy C Bass Craig Dykstra and those associated with their ongoing project The potential for the church to become an agent of discipleship love and service can best be realised when the church anticipates God s promised perfection in the full communion between God and humanity among human beings within human persons and between humanity and the rest of creation

The Way of Mystery Dennis Joseph Billy, James Keating, 2006 The Vatican II documents remind us that the spiritual journey is not made in a vacuum that God has chosen to save us not individually but as The People of God The Eucharist must help Christians to make their choices by discerning out of Christ s paschal mystery For this process to take place however Christians must first understand how the Eucharist puts them in touch with Christ s passion death and resurrection and what concrete implications being in touch with this mystery has for their daily lives In The Way Of Mystery James Keating and Dennis Billy examine the Eucharistic mystery to uncover its significance for Christian life today They seek to discover what implications the simple act of breaking bread together has for the concrete decisions Christians make And they point out how if Christian worship is to enliven the believing community it must help the faithful to integrate the spiritual and moral dimensions of their lives by leading them to embrace the attitudes and values embraced by Christ The book is intended for an educated lay audience It is also idea for adult continuing education classes as a text for undergraduate courses seeking to integrate faith and the moral life

Being Claimed by the Eucharist We Celebrate Scott P Detisch, 2022-01-03 2023 Catholic Media Association First Place Award Church Professional The eucharistic celebration is a vital part of the life and ministry of every priest and deacon At the same time the Eucharist is also a compelling narrative of all that Christ is for the people of God In this book Fr Scott Detisch explores a spirituality of holy orders through the eucharistic actions of Christ take bless break and give These are more than ritual actions the deacon or priest performs within the liturgy As they did for Jesus Christ these eucharistic words define who a priest or deacon is for God s people
