The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism Duncan A. Campbell, Niels Eichhorn, 2024-04-10 While historians have acknowledged that the issues of race slavery and emancipation were not unique to the American Civil War they have less frequently recognized the conflict s similarities to other global events As renowned historian Carl Degler pointed out the Civil War was one among many such conflicts during the mid nineteenth century Understanding the Civil War s place in world history requires placing it within a global context of other mid nineteenth century political social and cultural issues and events In The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism Niels Eichhorn and Duncan A Campbell explore the conflict from this perspective taking a transnational and comparative approach with a particular focus on the period from the 1830s to the 1870s Eichhorn and Campbell examine the development of nationalism and its frequent manifestation secession by comparing the American experience with that of several other nations including Germany Hungary and Brazil They compare the Civil War to the Crimean and Franco German wars to determine whether the American conflict was the first modern war To gauge the potential of foreign intervention in the Civil War they look to the time s developing international debate on the legality of intercession and mediation in other nations insurgencies Using the experiences of Indigenous peoples in the Americas Africa and the Antipodes Eichhorn and Campbell suggest the extent to which the United States was an imperial project To examine realpolitik they study four vastly different practitioners Otto von Bismarck Louis Napoleon Count Cavour and Abraham Lincoln Finally they compare emancipation in the United States to that in Peru and the end of forced servitude in Russia closing with a comparison of the memorialization of the Civil War with the experiences of other post emancipation societies and an examination of how other nations mythologized their past conflicts and ignored uncomfortable truths in the pursuit of reconciliation The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism avoids the limitations of American exceptionalism making it the first genuine comparative and transnational study of the Civil War in an international context

Physical Chemistry Robert G. Mortimer, 2000 Includes developments in the theories of chemical reaction kinetics and molecular quantum mechanics as well as in the experimental study of extremely rapid chemical reactions It proceeds from fundamental principles and shows how the consequences of these principles and postulates apply to the chemical and physical phenomena being studied The Standard of Review before the International Court of Justice Felix Fouchard,2024-05-02 This book examines how the International Court of Justice ICJ reviews State behaviour through the prism of the standard of review It develops a novel rationale to support the ICJ s application of deferential standards of review as a judicial avoidance technique based on strategic considerations It then goes on to empirically assess all 31 decisions of the Court in which the standard of review was at issue showing how the Court determines that standard and answering the question of whether it varies its review intensity strategically As a result the book s original contribution is two fold establishing a new rationale for judicial deference that can be applied to all international courts and tribunals and providing the first comprehensive empirical analysis of the ICJ s standards of review It will be beneficial to all scholars of the Court and those interested in judicial strategy A Comparative Survey of Laws in Force for the Prohibition, Regulation, and Licensing of Vice in England and Other Countries Sheldon Amos,1877
