Sanchez, 2015-03-27 What difference does the Spirit make in the life of Jesus and in our lives Answering that question without doing away with the divine dignity of Christ has been a challenge in the distant and recent past But this need not be the case The current work is a contribution to the growing field of Spirit Christology which seeks to enrich the classic Logos Christology of the ecumenical Councils with a Spirit oriented trajectory Sanchez tests the productivity of a Spirit Christology as a theological lens for assessing the main events of Jesus life and mission accounts of the atonement the significance of the incarnation the concepts of person and relation and models of the Trinity Seeing Christ as the privileged locus of the Spirit also has implications for the church's life in the Spirit Sanchez shows how a Spirit Christology fosters Christian practices such as proclamation prayer and sanctification Among the highlights of this work the reader will note the author's assessment of early church fathers readings of the place of the Spirit in the anointing of Jesus a constructive proposal towards the complementarity of Logos and Spirit Christologies ecumenical engagement with various theological traditions in the East and the West and the first constructive assessment of the field informed by the Lutheran tradition The Holy Spirit R. A.
