Golden Harvest , Golden Harvest Rosanna C. Sharps,2011 Jonathan and Mary Sawyer have both been given direction from God to move their family from the war torn town of Perryville Kentucky in 1864 to their new land of promise Snelling California But the land of promise is not without its giant encounters for the family especially for their children who are coming of age Fifty Contemporary Film Directors Yvonne Tasker,2010-10-04 This book provides an accessible overview of each director s contribution to cinema incorporating a discussion of their career major works and impact

Hong Kong Cinema Yingchi Chu,2003-08-29 Examining Hong Kong cinema from its inception in 1913 to the end of the colonial era this work explains the key areas of production market film products and critical traditions Hong Kong Cinema considers the different political formations of Hong Kong s culture as seen through the cinema and deals with the historical political economic and cultural relations between Hong Kong cinema and other Chinese film industries on the mainland as well as in Taiwan and South East Asia Discussion covers the concept of national cinema in the context of Hong Kong s status as a quasi nation with strong links to both the motherland China and the coloniser Britain and also argues that Hong Kong cinema is a national cinema only in an incomplete and ambiguous sense Federal Register ,2006-07-31 Golden

Harvest Rosanna Cerezo Sharps,2011-05-01 Jonathan and Mary Sawyer have both been given direction from God to move their family from the war torn town of Perryville Kentucky in 1864 to their new land of promise Snelling California But the land of promise is not without its giant encounters for the family especially for their children who are coming of age It came in the form of disappointing ambitions uncontrollable temptations hidden intentions bad discernment and a desire to follow a calling Jonathan and Mary discover their life assimilating the Parable of the Sower The era occurs in the late 1800 s yet the trials are as timeless as the Parable itself Although the family is fictitious their life situations are not and the reader will find themselves relating to the struggles and the victories the family encounters In addition to the main characters are actual people places and situations that occurred in California s frontier towns such as Jamestown Chinese Camp Coulterville Mariposa Rio Vista and of course Snelling The names of the actual people have been slightly changed and the story is based upon historical fact This story will open the eyes of the reader to the difficulties that can easily occur in life and how faith in an almighty and all knowing God will take these difficulties and produce a golden harvest Hong Kong Popular Culture Klavier J. Wang,2020-01-07 This book traces the evolution of the Hong Kong s popular culture namely film television and popular music also known as Cantopop which is knotted with the city s geo political economic and social transformations Under various historical contingencies and due to the city s special geo politics these three major popular cultural forms have experienced various worlding processes and have generated border crossing impact culturally and socially The worlding processes are greatly associated the city s nature as a reception and departure port to Sinophone migrants and populations of multiethnic and multicultural Reaching beyond the golden age 1980s of Hong Kong popular culture and afar from a film centric cultural narration this book delineating from the dawn of the 20th century and following a chronological order untangles how the nowadays popular Hong Kong film Hong Kong TV and Cantopop are derived from early age Sinophone cultural heritage re shaped through cross cultural hybridization and influenced by multiple political forces Review of archives existing literatures and corporation documents are supplemented with policy analysis and in depth interviews to explore the centennial development of Hong Kong popular culture which is by no means demise but at the juncture of critical transition

Legacies of the Drunken Master Luke White,2020-04-30 In 1978 the films Snake in the Eagle s Shadow and Drunken Master both starring a young Jackie Chan caused a stir in the Hong Kong cinema industry and changed the landscape of martial arts cinema Mixing virtuoso displays of acrobatic kung fu with knockabout humor to huge box office success they broke the mold of the tragic and heroic martial arts film and sparked not only a wave of imitations but also a much longer trend for kung fu comedies that continues to the present day Legacies of the Drunken Master the first book length analysis of kung fu comedy interrogates the politics of the films and their representations of the performing body It draws on an interdisciplinary engagement with popular culture and an interrogation of the critical literature on Hong Kong and martial arts cinema to offer original readings of key films These readings pursue the genre in terms of its carnival aesthetic the utopias of the body it envisions its highly stylized depictions of violence its images of masculinity and the registers of its hysterical laughter The book s analyses are carried out amidst kung fu comedy s shifting historical contexts including the aftermath of the 1960s radical youth movements the rapidly globalizing colonial enclave of Hong Kong and the emerging consciousness of its 1997 handover to China and the transnationalization of cinema audiences It argues that through kung fu comedy s images of the body the genre articulated in complex and often contradictory ways political realities relevant to late twentieth century Hong Kong and the wider conditions of globalized capitalism The kung fu comedy entwines us in a popular cultural history that stretches into the folk past and forward into utopian and dystopian possibilities Theoretically rich and critical Legacies of the Drunken Master aims to be at the forefront of scholarship on martial arts cinema It also addresses readers with a broader interest in Hong Kong culture and politics during the 1970s and 1980s postcolonialism in East Asia and action and comedy films in a global context as well as those fascinated with the performing body in the martial arts
