Guide To Lace And Linens:

Guide to Lace and Linens Elizabeth M. Kurella, 1998 This book offers a process that will allow anyone with a good eye and a magnifying glass to determine what kind of lace they have and its current value Large detailed photographs accompany step by step instructions in lace identification Learn the secret codes of lace and linen terms and what to look for to determine when to save or sell a valuable piece

20th Century Linens and Lace Elizabeth Scofield, Peggy Zalamea, 1995 The household linens and lace presented are the collectible styles made in Europe and North America during the 20th century including Appenzell Battenberg needle bobbin chemical and machine laces crochet cutwork embroidery damask net darning tatting and drawnwork Beautiful color photographs depict the linens from full room settings down to minute details of the stitches and origin and quality and care are discussed A Pocket Guide to Valuable Old Lace and Lacy Linens Elizabeth M. Kurella, 1997-01-01

Graced by Lace Debra Bonito, 2001-01-01 The title of this book embodies the authors attitude toward the collection that she presents using vivid photographs to guide the reader through centuries of lacemaking and embroidery The author has traveled throughout Europe carefully researching the origin and history of the pieces presented Information is separated into eight chapters Lace Trim Bridal Hankies Fashion Society Embroidery Appenzell work Bed Linens Table Linens and Miscellaneous Lace and or Embroidered Pieces Each chapter includes an overview detailed descriptions and photographs including details that are excellent references for identifying various styles of lace and embroidery The price range associated with each will help the reader understand the effect age condition and workmanship have on value This book will appeal to beginners and experienced collectors alike

Connoisseur's Guide to Normandy Lace Patchworks Elizabeth M. Kurella, 2004

Clothing the New World Church Maya Stanfield-Mazzi, 2021-02-15 The book provides the first broad survey of church textiles of Spanish America and demonstrates that while overlooked textiles were a vital part of visual culture in the Catholic Church When Catholic churches were built in the New World in the sixteenth century they were furnished with rich textiles known in Spanish as church clothing These textile ornaments covered churches altars stairs floors and walls Vestments clothed priests and church attendants and garments clothed statues of saints The value attached to these textiles their constant use and their stunning visual qualities suggest that they played a much greater role in the creation of the Latin American Church than has been previously recognized In Clothing the New World Church Maya Stanfield Mazzi provides the first comprehensive survey of church adornment with textiles addressing how these works helped establish Christianity in Spanish America and expand it over four centuries Including more than 180 photos this book examines both imported and indigenous textiles used in the church compiling works that are now scattered around the world and reconstructing their original contexts Stanfield Mazzi delves into the hybrid or mestizo qualities of these cloths and argues that when local weavers or embroiderers in the Americas created church textiles they did so consciously with the understanding that they were creating a new church through their work The chapters are divided by textile type including embroidery featherwork tapestry painted cotton and cotton lace In the first chapter on woven silk we see how a silk standard was established on the basis of priestly preferences for this imported cloth The second chapter explains how Spanish style embroidery was introduced in the New World and mastered by local artisans The following chapters show that in select times and places spectacular local textile types were adapted for the church reflecting ancestral aesthetic and ideological patterns Clothing the New World Church makes a significant contribution to the fields of textile studies art history Church history and Latin American studies and to interdisciplinary scholarship on material culture and indigenous agency in the New World
