

1. The first step is to determine the theme of the event. This can be done by asking the bride and groom what they want the wedding to be about. Once the theme is determined, the next step is to choose a color palette. This can be done by looking at color swatches or inspiration photos. Once the color palette is chosen, the next step is to choose a font. This can be done by looking at wedding invitations or online resources. Once the font is chosen, the next step is to create the invitation. This can be done by using a template or by creating one from scratch. Once the invitation is created, the next step is to send it out. This can be done by mail or by email.
