Fort Fraser was established in 1858 as a trading post for the Hudson's Bay Company. It was one of the first permanent settlements in the Fraser Valley and played a significant role in the development of the region.

The fort was built on a strategic location, providing a safe haven for traders and a base of operations for the company's activities in the area.

Over the years, the fort has been expanded and improved, reflecting the growth of the settlement and the increasing importance of the fur trade in the region.

Fort Fraser : (where the Hell's That?) Lenore Rudland,1988      Alex Lord's British Columbia John Calam,2007-10-01

Alex Lord a pioneer inspector of rural British Columbia schools shares in these recollections his experiences in a province barely out of the stage coach era Travelling through vast northern territory utilizing unreliable transportation and enduring climatic extremes Lord became familiar with the aspirations of remote communities and their faith in the humanizing effects of tiny assisted schools En route he performed in resolute yet imaginative fashion the supervisory functions of a top government educator developing an educational philosophy of his own based on an understanding of the provincial geography a reverence for citizenship and a work ethic tuned to challenge and accomplishment      Home to the Nechako

June Wood,2013 The people of the Nechako region are not unfamiliar with hardship environmental devastation and protecting what they hold dear June Wood chronicles the history of the Nechako River and its region covering the construction of the Kenney Dam which changed forever the flow of the river and its tributaries the controversial Kemano Completion Project which threatened to doom the river further still and the subsequent battles to protect the river and the communities affected by its altered flow She also delves into the aftermath of the devastating mountain pine beetle epidemic that severely harmed the economy of the region An active participant in many of the fights to protect the Nechako River Wood is one of the most qualified people to speak on behalf of the land she calls home She passionately introduces a river whose once forceful flow has been weakened to a mere trickle and sympathetically relays the harsh realities of environmental ruin both to the river and the forest through unnatural and natural causes while weaving in her personal narrative of the land that holds her heart      Alex Lord's British Columbia
