Forgotten People:

The Great Firewall of China James Griffiths, 2021-10-21 China's Great Firewall has evolved into the most sophisticated system of online censorship in the world. As the Chinese internet grows and online businesses thrive, speech is controlled, dissent quashed, and attempts to organize outside the official Communist Party are quickly stamped out. Updated throughout and available in paperback for the first time, The Great Firewall of China draws on James Griffiths' unprecedented access to the Great Firewall and the politicians, tech leaders, dissidents, and hackers whose lives revolve around it. New chapters cover the suppression of information about the first outbreak of COVID-19 in Wuhan, disinformation campaigns in response to the exposure of the persecution of Uyghur communities in Xinjiang, and the crackdown against the Umbrella movement in Hong Kong.

A Haunted History of Louisiana Plantations Cheryl H. White, W. Ryan Smith, 2017-09-25 Stories of ghosts and strange happenings at these historic Southern homes, with photos included, Louisiana plantations evoke images of grandeur and elegance, but beyond the facade of stately homes are stories of hope and subjugation, tragedy and suffering, shame and perseverance, and war and conquest. After sixteen workers axed most of the Houmas House's ancient oak trees, referred to as the Gentlemen, eight of the surviving trees eerily twisted overnight in grief over the losses wrought by a great Mississippi River flood. An illegal duel to reclaim lost honor left the grounds of Natchez's Cherokee Plantation bloodstained, but the victim's spirit may still wander there today. A mutilated slave girl named Chloe still haunts the halls of the Myrtles Plantation in St. Francisville. In this book, Cheryl H. White and W. Ryan Smith reveal the dark history, folklore, and lasting human cost of Louisiana plantation life.

Refugee Pathways to Peace Janet Mancini Billson, 2024-12-15 This book provides perspectives from different refugee groups and the resettlement agencies that smooth their transition into a new life context. It discusses how they overcome displacement and cope with trauma and how they remain vulnerable to marginality and delays in economic independence.

The Masterkey, 1927 Includes the Museum's annual reports.

In the "Stranger People's" Country Mary Noailles Murfree, 1891 In the Stranger People's Country tells the story of contact between a late nineteenth-century Tennessee mountain community and an amateur archaeologist who wants to open the graves of the prehistoric "Stranger People," a source of myth to the mountaineers. A politician looking for votes in the country has invited the archaeologist Shattuck to travel into the mountains with him, but a mountain woman, Adelaide Yates, threatens to shoot anyone who attempts to violate the graves. The courageous mountaineer Felix Guthrie joins the defense of the "Stranger People" and competes with Shattuck for the attention of another mountain woman, Letitia Pettingill. ebook.gotowhere.org

Population, Mobility and Belonging Rob Cover, 2019-10-08 In a world of increasing mobility and migration, population size and composition come under persistent scrutiny across public policy, public debate, and film and television. Drawing on media, cultural, and social theory approaches, this book takes a fresh look at the concept of population as a term that circulates outside the traditional disciplinary areas of demography, governance, and statistics, a term that gives coherence to notions such as community nation the world and global humanity itself It focuses on understanding how the concept of population governs ways of thinking about our own identities and forms of belonging at local national and international levels on the manner in which television genres fixate on depictions of overpopulation and underpopulation on the emergence of questions of ethics of belonging and migration in relation to cities on attitudes towards otherness and on the use by an emergent alt right politics of population in forgotten people concepts As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology geography and media and cultural studies with interests in questions of belonging citizenship and population
