Good bye may seem forever.
Farewell is like the end, but in my heart is the memory and there you will always be.

Goodbye Is Forever:

So Long Guys, Goodbye is Forever Jane R. Edwards, 2002 With John Olson's plane in a spin of descent John McKee in Rose O Day was now miles behind the protection of the formation He was vulnerable and he knew it He pushed the throttles forward unleashing the power of all 4 000 horses in the attempt to join the homeward bound Fortresses Just a few minutes that's all he would need An ailing B 24 gave McKee the time The damaged aircraft limping below the B 17 became the next choice an easy kill for the German fighters The FW 190s closed in on the Liberator as McKee closed towards the 306th The German fighters trying to determine the vulnerability of this new aircraft continued to survey the B 17s and intermittently attacked A Focke Wulf 190 attempting to attain a diving range pulled up but did not have enough speed and stalled out right in front of John McKee He was so close that anyone could have leaned over and hit him with a monkey wrench The gunners didn't move They gaped at the German spellbound Ahead McKee could see the coast and the approaching Spitfires The Spits having refueled were returning to cover the withdrawing American aircraft and engage the pursuing German fighters From one of the Spitties being chased by a Focke Wulf the gutsy English pilot radioed over VHF frequency to McKee Aye say Yank would you lead that son of a bitch I'm catching all of it The Fortresses needed the protection of the RAF The mission had exposed the weakness of the Flying Fort She was not a racehorse Maneuverable and dependable the B 17 was no match for the fast FW 190 or the Messerschmitt 109 McKee had seen the FW 190 stand on a prop and go up right past him He recalled Wendover Field and the conversation he had with the representative from Boeing Aircraft Being that I'm 11 10ths coward John mused what if I get into trouble If you get into trouble in the B 17 the factory rep answered just hit those turbo superchargers and climb No fighter can keep up with you Christ McKee thought now there's an intelligent son of a bitch I wish he'd been there Over the Channel the tautness eased from the body of McKee He was nearly back to the safety of the base to the Key Club to scotch to women Yes the maiden mission was nearly over But the pain of war was just beginning McKee thought back to the morning back to a few minutes after the pilots briefing less than three hours ago Oley had pulled him aside and in a voice filled with resignation said Honest John I have a premonition this feeling I'm going to get it Today is the day Ah hell Swede McKee protested you and I are too tough too ornery Why shit you're crazy They'll never get us At Thurleigh ship after ship landed Ferrying down the flight line they pulled onto their pads All the crews of the 306th returned except for John Olson's The empty revetment of Snoozy II wounded the sight John McKee described the reaction to the loss Everyone felt it Nobody said anything Nobody wanted to say anything They were gone We knew it We kept it inside Life Is Better With You In It Rodney James Dick, 2020-11-24 Whether its parental platonic or passionate we all experience love at some point in our lives as well as all the ups and downs that go along with it from blissful to agonizing In all of its myriad forms love has been one of the greatest inspirations for poetry for as long as there have been poets because its abundance or lack thereof profoundly impacts our lives in ways that are otherwise difficult to articulate This collection of thoughtful and heartfelt poems speaks with a simple elegance resonating with sincerity that is hard to deny giving words to thoughts and feelings we might struggle to find on our own and perhaps more importantly offering comfort and assurance that for better or worse we are not alone Our thoughts feelings wants needs and fears are valid and worth sharing All too often we hide our thoughts and feelings from others and take on a burden that can sadly be too much for some to bear I want people to know that they are worthy of love and that they need to convey their thoughts and feelings when they are struggling so they do not have to go through those struggles alone Rodney James Dick Billboard ,1986-03-15 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

Remember the Alamo Carl S. Adams, 2003 As America suffered the internal upheaval of the Vietnam War era Carl Adams and thousands of other young men volunteered to serve their country in wartime. Trained as sentry dog handlers many together with their devoted German shepherd dogs were assigned to guard American air bases against the continual threat of Vietcong attack. These heroic K9 teams did their jobs well they share credit for saving more than 10,000 American lives during the war. Nearly all the dog handlers returned to the United States after their tours of duty. The dogs despite their valorous service were classified as surplus equipment at the war's end and were destroyed outright or consigned to a doubtful fate when they were turned over to the Army of South Vietnam. Here is the story of K9 seen firsthand through the eyes of a nineteen-year-old who never chanted Hell no we won't go. Remember the Alamo has been selected as an information resource for a planned documentary on the modern military working dog. A high school student working on an assignment asked me Why do you think we lost the Vietnam War? I replied Imagine you're on the football team. You're scheduled to play a team from another conference. Many of your fellow students don't want the game played so they march in protest and refuse to participate. When you get to the other team's stadium you find out the game will be played with two sets of rules one for your side and another for your opponents. They don't even wear uniforms so it's impossible to tell them apart from their fans in the stands.
