The Latinos of Asia Anthony Christian Ocampo,2016-03-02 This groundbreaking book is essential reading not only for the Filipino diaspora but for anyone who cares about the mysteries of racial identity Jose Antonio Vargas Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Is race only about the color of your skin In The Latinos of Asia Anthony Christian Ocampo shows that what color you are depends largely on your social context Filipino Americans for example helped establish the Asian American movement and are classified by the US Census as Asian But the legacy of Spanish colonialism in the Philippines means that they share many cultural characteristics with Latinos such as last names religion and language Thus Filipinos color their sense of connection with other racial groups changes depending on their social context The Filipino story demonstrates how immigration is changing the way people negotiate race particularly in cities like Los Angeles where Latinos and Asians now constitute a collective majority Amplifying their voices Ocampo illustrates how second generation Filipino Americans racial identities change depending on the communities they grow up in the schools they attend and the people they befriend Ultimately The Latinos of Asia offers a window into both the racial consciousness of everyday people and the changing racial landscape of American society Imagining the Filipino American Diaspora Jonathan Y. Okamura, 1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Common Destiny Juanita Tamayo Lott, 2006-03-19 Filipino Americans like many ethnic groups in America are complex and heterogeneous This book documents how Filipino Americans have grown within the context of political forces the prevailing social order rights and responsibilities of individuals economic success and the American Dream Lott shows how Filipino Americans have become active participants in the American democracy and why active civic participation is crucial to any emerging ethnic group Her controversial thesis is that the twenty first century will not be defined by the color line but by a more basic human relationship the adult child connection because no society can survive without sustained commitment and shared sacrifice by adult men and women for the welfare of future generations Filipino Americans Maria P. P.

Root, 1997-05-20 When Asian Americans are discussed in the media the reference is often to people of Chinese or Japanese descent However the largest Asian American ethnic group is Filipino a group of which little is known or written despite its long standing history with the United States This interdisciplinary analysis rectifies this dearth of information by addressing ethnic identity the impact of different colonizations on ethnic identity personal and family relationships mental health race and racism In addition the sociopolitical context is examined in each chapter making the volume useful as a foundational tool for hypothesis generation empirical research policy analysis and planning and literature review Bilingual-bicultural Education for Filipino-Americans Estela G. Pinga, 1977

Home Bound Yen Le Espiritu, 2003-05-05 In this highly original and inspired book Espiritu bursts the binaries and shows us how the tensions of race gender nation and colonial legacies situate contemporary transnationalism Conceptually rich and empirically grounded Home Bound blurs the borders of sociology and cultural studies like no other book I know Kudos to Espiritu for this boundary breaking tour de force Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo author of Domestica Cleaning and Caring in the Shadows of Affluence A singular achievement Not only does it cast light on the deep historical entanglements of immigration and imperialism citizenship and race and gender and subjectivity in the United States but by highlighting the varied voices of Filipino Americans it also calls attention to their creative potential to make a home under some of the most inhospitable conditions Theoretically rich empirically grounded and lucidly written this book marks a major advance in our attempts to understand the specter of migration haunting the world today Vicente L Rafael author of White Love and Other Events in Filipino History Home Bound combines excellent ethnography of the Filipino experience in the U S with a brilliant and devastating critique of traditional scholarship on immigration Espiritu s analysis of how the vectors of identity articulate with one another is particularly cutting edge Sarah J Mahler author of American Dreaming Immigrant Life on the Margins Using a critical transnational feminist and historical perspective Espiritu insightfully and sensitively analyzes the meaning of home community friendship love and family for Filipino Americans In the process she unveils what these immigrants can tell us about gender race politics economics and culture in the United States today Diane L Wolf author of Factory Daughters Gender Household Dynamics and Rural Industrialization in Java Espiritu makes an outstanding contribution to our appreciation of the dynamics of immigrant cultures within the political economy of transnationalism Lisa Lowe author of Immigrant Acts On Asian American Cultural Politics How to Profit from the \$27 Billion Filipino American Market Edgar T.
