Global Resistance Reader:

The Global Resistance Reader Louise Amoore, 2005 The Global Resistance Reader provides the first comprehensive collection of work on the phenomenal rise of transnational social movements and resistance politics from the visible struggles against the financial economic and political authority of large international organizations such as the World Trade Organization World Bank and International Monetary Fund to the much less visible acts of resistance in everyday life The conceptual debates substantive themes and case studies have been selected to open up the idea of global resistance to interrogation and discussion by students and to provide a one stop orientation for researchers journalists policymakers and activists

Progress Or Collapse Roberto De Vogli, 2013 In Progress or Collapse Roberto De Vogli guides us through the multiple converging global crises of economic progress He explores the connections between the environmental crisis and the psychological social cultural political and economic emergencies affecting modern societies It is not a coincidence the author argues that global ecological destruction is occurring in tandem with other crises rising mental disorders mindless consumerism rampant conformism status competition civic disengagement startling social inequalities global financial instability and widespread political impasse

Cosmopolitanism and the Legacies of Dissent Tamara Caraus, Camil Alexandru Parvu, 2014-07-17 The core idea shared by all cosmopolitan views is that all human beings belong to a single community and the ultimate units of moral concern are individual human beings not states or particular forms of human associations Nevertheless the attempts to ground a political theory on overarching universal principles is in contradiction with the plurality of social cultural political religious interpretative standpoints in the contemporary world Is dissent cosmopolitan Is there a legacy of dissent for a theory of cosmopolitanism This book is a comparative historical analysis of dissident thought and practice for contemporary debates on cosmopolitanism Divided into two parts the editors and contributors explore the contribution of paradigmatic dissidents like Gandhi Martin Luther King Havel Sakharov Mandela Liu Xiaobo Aung San Suu Kyi towards a post universalist cosmopolitan theory Part Two examines the inherent cosmopolitanism of the seemingly peripheral dissent of contemporary forms of protests resistance direct action like NO TAV movement and Occupy Wall Street A timely book which allows for a much needed new engagement in contemporary debates of cosmopolitanism we learn how practical resistance to totalizing hegemonic claims is generated and how dissident thinking might contribute to new enriched ways of conceiving the non totalizing foundations of cosmopolitanism An innovative look at what lessons can scholars of cosmopolitanism learn from dissent dissident movements and what the role of dissent in cosmopolitan democracy could be
