Touring the lands where medical science evolved Robert Gibson Eccles,1910 The Broken Road Patrick Leigh Fermor,2014-03-04 Patrick Leigh Fermor recounts the last leg of his epic walk across Europe as he makes his way through Bulgaria Romania and finally Greece In the winter of 1933 eighteen year old Patrick Paddy Leigh Fermor set out on a walk across Europe starting in Holland and ending in Constantinople a trip that took him almost a year Decades later Leigh Fermor told the story of that life changing journey in A Time of Gifts and Between the Woods and the Water two books now celebrated as among the most vivid absorbing and beautifully written travel books of all time The Broken Road is the long awaited account of the final leg of his youthful adventure that Leigh Fermor promised but was unable to finish before his death in 2011 Assembled from Leigh Fermor s manuscripts by his prizewinning biographer Artemis Cooper and the travel writer Colin Thubron this is perhaps the most personal of all Leigh Fermor s books catching up with young Paddy in the fall of 1934 and following him through Bulgaria and Romania to the coast of the Black Sea Days and nights on the road spectacular landscapes and uncanny cities friendships lost and found leading the high life in Bucharest or camping out with fishermen and shepherds in the The Broken Road such incidents and escapades are described with all the linguistic bravura odd and astonishing learning and overflowing exuberance that Leigh Fermor is famous for but also with a melancholy awareness of the passage of time especially when he meditates on the scarred history of the Balkans or on his troubled relations with his father The book ends perfectly with Paddy s arrival in Greece the country he would fall in love with and fight for Throughout it we can still hear the ringing voice of an irrepressible young man embarking on a life of adventure
