

Farewell Speech

Farewell Speech

A farewell speech is a kind of speech given when you are leaving your occupation. Of course, not all conditions where you leave your occupation need a farewell speech, but it is an important gesture to do so if you are getting retired or leaving the company to work somewhere else. It is the perfect way to say goodbye to your coworkers, give a good last impression on them, and closure.

It is crucial to do background research about who gives farewell speeches earlier in the company to see if you need to give one. Farewell speeches are often needed from those who have a strong influence in the workplace or the company, so your occupation might not need a farewell speech to say goodbye.

Getting Ready for the Farewell Speech

Of course, you need to be prepared for your farewell speech to leave with the best last impression. Here are some examples that can be helpful while creating an outline for the farewell speech:

Introduction: Greet everyone, and clearly state that this speech was to say goodbye

- Hello everyone, I am really appreciated seeing you all on my last day here.
- Hello, and thank you for being here on my last day.
- Good evening; I appreciate all of your presence here at my farewell dinner.
