A painting of a desert town at sunset. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light. In the foreground, a woman wearing a black niqab is seen from the side, looking towards the town. The town features several buildings with arched windows and doorways. A large, multi-story building with a flat roof is prominent on the left. In the background, there are palm trees and a sign that reads "Orange". The overall atmosphere is one of quiet observation and a sense of place.
