

Hi

I'm trying to gather my thoughts into something coherent, but right now my mind is just a jumbled A Patchwork sequence. At all the times I daydreamed about, waited for, and pined away for a chance to get to tell you this news. All the times I was ~~thousands~~ close, reaching out for it, only for it to fall through. I almost stopped thinking it could ever happen, after 20 years of having the carrot dangled and then yanked away. But that's all in the past now. I've been bursting into tears of joy at random intervals ever since I found out that this is really happening. I really get to say those words.

All of the music I've ever made... now belongs... to me.

And all my music about
All the absent ones.
The album art and photography
The unreleased songs
The memories. The magic. The madness.
Every single one
My entire life's work.

To say this is my greatest dream come true is actually being pretty reserved about it. To my fans, you know how important this has been to me - so much so that I meticulously re-recorded and released 4 of my albums calling them Taylor's Version. The passionate support you showed those albums and the incredible story you turned The Eras Tour into is why I was able to buy back my music. I can't thank you enough for helping to rewrite me with this art that I have dedicated my life to, but have never owned until now.

Very Superior Men: Some Early Public School Headmasters and Their Achievements Alicia Constance Percival, 1973     Educational Administration Innovation for Sustainable Development Aan Komariah, Taufani Kurniatun, Dedy Kurniady, Rita Anggorowati, Ade Gafar Abdullah, Asep Nandiyanto, 2018-08-06 The International Conference on Research of Educational Administration and Management ICREAM held on October 17 2017 in Bandung West Java Indonesia The aim of ICREAM is to provide a platform for educators administrators managers leaders policy makers researchers scholars principals supervisors graduate students practitioners academicians professionals and teachers from different discipline backgrounds to present and discuss research developments and innovations in the fields of educational administration It provides opportunities for the delegates to exchange new ideas and application experiences to establish business or research relations and to find global partners for future collaboration     Policy Metamorphosis in China Xiaojiong Ding, 2011-12-01 China has been experiencing great economic and social changes since the late 1970s when the Reform and Opening Up policies were accepted While some Sinologists argue that such changes have made the Chinese structure of authority fragmented and discrepant and have weakened the directive power of the Central Government a few others emphasize that despite a certain degree of economic decentralization and segmentation of public power the Central Government has been seeking ways to hold the nation together Consequently while the former argue that due to the centrifugal nature of the political system policy implementation is bound to deviate from the route specified by the Central Government the latter hold that national policies are carried out faithfully with minor deviations only in certain circumstances This book studies the processes of policy implementation in contemporary mainland China by taking minban private education at the level of basic education in Shanghai as an example Based on 65 interviews conducted during 2001 and 2004 three moduses of policy implementation are proposed and the Model of Structural Fracturation is advanced as the prevailing modus of policy implementation in contemporary China The model argues that policy metamorphosis during implementation is not something random in contrast it is determined by structural factors that no single policy actor can manipulate The pyramid of Chinese politics is a loose construction with vertical and horizontal fracturations between different layers The model highlights the fact that governments at the county district level are remote from and beyond the control of the Central Government and the provinces They deserve more attention than they have received Contrary to Western perspectives which regard the structural fracturation in the Chinese polity as dangerous for national stability and unity this book takes the fracturation as an important and delicate element of the Chinese mode of governance and suggests that the very strength of the state lies in its capacity to tolerate local deviation and to embrace it into national institutions     Modern Language Teaching ,1905
